Both House, Senate Okay School Fund

Compromise Seen Over $4.4 Billion Asked By Johnson

WASHINGTON (AP) — Both the Senate and House have passed broad education bills which would pour additional billions of dollars into the elementary and high school aid program over the next two years.

The Senate passed its $6.4-billion version of the legislation late Thursday 54 to 16. A few hours later, the House cleared its $5.7-billion measure by a 237-97 vote.

Both would authorize funds well beyond the approximately $4.4 billion recommended by President Johnson.

Sponsors said they do not anticipate any great difficulty in working out a compromise bill at a Senate-House conference expected to be held early next week.

The final measure will extend for the current 1967 fiscal year and for 1968 the landmark federal aid to education bill enacted in 1965.

That law was estimated to provide grants for 90 per cent of the nation's 26,000 school districts in the first year, with the emphasis on improving education for children from poor families.

Sponsors said this year's bills liberalize the aid formula and will mean that many more schools will be covered.

In the Senate, Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen offered a series of amendments to cut the bill, but all were defeated by big margins.

His attempt to send the measure back to the Labor Committee with instructions to reduce it to the level of Johnson's budget was slapped down 47 to 23.

In the House, most of the debate centered on the efforts of the federal government to achieve racial desegregation of schools under the powers of the 1964 Civil Rights Act.

Critics of Commissioner of Education Harold Howe II won adoption of two floor amendments aimed at Howe's efforts to achieve desegregation.

One would take away his power to defer any school funds for a district pending the hearing it is entitled to under the 1964 law. But it did not end his right to withhold funds once it had been determined the 1964 act was violated.

The other would prevent the commissioner from "requiring the assignment or transportation of students or teachers to overcome racial imbalance" in schools.

McCutcheon Honored For Viet Service

Marine Maj. Gen. Keith Barr McCutcheon, a native of East Liverpool and now head of Marine Corps aviation in Washington, received the Distinguished Service Medal for service in Viet Nam during a ceremony Thursday at the Marine barracks in the nation's capital.

Gen. McCutcheon received the DSM from Marine Commandant Wallace M. Greene Jr.

The son of Mrs. M. D. McCutcheon of Thompson Ave. and the late Dr. M. D. McCutcheon, Gen. McCutcheon was commanding general of the First Marine Air Wing in Viet Nam, which included both air and ground troops, and was deputy commander of all Marines in Viet Nam under Lt. Gen. Lewis Watt.

He was graduated from East Liverpool High School in 1933 and from Carnegie Tech in 1937. He holds a master's degree from Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

He entered the Marine Corps after receiving his degree from Carnegie Tech, served as an aviator in World War II and commanded a helicopter unit when the Marines pioneered the use of the "choppers" in the Korean fighting.

Others Strike 25 Times Inside Area

B52s Pound North Viet Near Demilitarized Zone

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—U.S. B52 bombers pounded North Viet Nam just above the demilitarized zone Thursday night while tactical U.S. bombers struck 25 times inside the zone and allied troops fought hard just south of it.

As the once neutral buffer area along the 17th Parallel exploded again, the three-pronged allied force waging Operation Irving closed in tighter on encircled Communist soldiers near South Viet Nam's central coast.

A company of the U.S. 1st Cavalry, Airmobile, Division spearheading Irving burned down a Viet Cong hamlet 22 miles northwest of Qui Nhon, and American marksmen strafing from gunship helicopters reported killing 20 of the enemy as they fled.

Two miles south of the demilitarized zone, South Vietnamese paratroopers clashed with North Vietnamese army regulars Thursday in a vicious, four-hour battle that took a heavy toll on both sides.

An official spokesman said the South Vietnamese were attacked by a regiment—about 1,500 men—of North Vietnamese four miles southeast of Dong Ha, forward headquarters of U.S. Marines also trying to stop the North Vietnamese drive into the South.

The Vietnamese paratroopers called in U.S. air strikes, artillery support and naval guntire, and a Vietnamese spokesman estimated 200 North Vietnamese were killed in the prolonged action.

Casualties among the South Vietnamese troops were officially termed moderate, meaning they were hit hard.

Seven miles north of the demilitarized zone, B52 bombers hammered in a nighttime raid on North Vietnamese storage areas, truck parks and bivouac sites from which the Communists infiltrate South.

It was the fourth B52 strike in just over two weeks against North Viet Nam. All four have been in the same general area of the infiltration staging areas.

Smaller U.S. tactical bombers flew 25 sorties Thursday against North Vietnamese positions inside the six-mile-wide buffer zone, a U.S. spokesman reported.

The American raiders concentrated on the central and western areas of the zone, keeping clear of the eastern end where a bombing pause has been in effect for 11 days to allow field teams of the International Control Commission to investigate violations of the zone's neutrality.

Other formations of 52 bombers at dawn today hit a Communist base camp and headquarters area in South Viet Nam 40 miles northwest of Qui Nhon.

This target was 10 to 15 miles north of the American, South Korean and South Vietnamese force which in Operation Irving was tracking down the remnants of a badly battered force of some 3,000 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong.

Convention Opens Saturday

Ohio GOP Platform Seen Rhodes' Reply To Critics

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A Republican platform carrying incumbent Gov. James A. Rhodes' answer to Democratic criticism of his public education efforts shaped up as likely to emerge from a hearing today in advance of Saturday's GOP state convention.

That was the word from party sources as a 24-member platform committee opened a one-day hearing here to witnesses wishing to testify before the committee hammered out the platform.

Other planks for major attention included traffic safety and law and order along with those on mental health, conservation and pollution.

Platform drafters, with state Sen. Theodore M. Gray of Piqua as chairman, will submit their efforts to delegates for approval at the GOP convention in the 5,000-seat State Fairgrounds Coliseum.

Rhodes, bidding for re-election to a four-year term, has campaigned with other Republican statehouse incumbents largely on their records without answering opposition challenges directly.

Adoption of the Republican platform, on which party nominees will stand for election next Nov. 8, is expected to signal a shift in Rhodes' re-election strategy.

Associates assert the platform will provide the official springboard for the governor to disclose a "meat and potatoes" program to keep the state moving ahead in the next four years under his guidance.

GOP leaders are predicting a turnout of 7,000 to 10,000 delegates and visitors to the convention, with more than 50 busloads of party faithful from around the state expected. There are 846 delegates.

In preconvention meetings Saturday:

State Rep. Chalmers P. Wylie, candidate for 15th District congressman in Franklin County, and state Sen. Charles Whalen Jr., running for Congress from the 3rd District in Montgomery County, will address the Ohio League of Young Republican Clubs.

Ohio federation of Republican Women's Clubs President's Council will hold a session.

Delete Canal Funds, Two Senators Ask

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pennsylvania's senators urged today that a $500,000 appropriation to begin planning a Lake Erie-Ohio River canal be deleted from the public works appropriations bill.

Republican Hugh Scott said the funds would be a "down-payment for a billion-dollar ditch designed to bury 20,000 Pennsylvania jobs."

Democrat Joseph S. Clark also sponsored the amendment to eliminate the funds.

Pennsylvania congressmen lost their battle in the House to block the appropriation.

They argued the proposed canal would lead to the loss of jobs of Pennsylvania railroad men and benefit the steel industry in Youngstown, Ohio.

The principal sponsor of the canal legislation is Rep. Michael Kirwan, D-Ohio, chairman of the House Subcommittee on Public Works Appropriations.

LBJ Invites Soviet To Ponder Cutting Forces In Europe

U.S. Policy Is Reviewed In Address

Tells Writers Our Task With East Is Reconciliation

NEW YORK (AP) — President Johnson today, in effect, invited the Soviet Union to consider a reduction of its forces in Europe in the same way the Western Allies are considering such a step.

Recalling that the North Atlantic Treaty Organization is studying "what strengths NATO needs in light of changing technology and the current threat," Johnson said:

"Reduction of Soviet forces in Central Europe would, of course, affect the extent of the threat."

In a speech prepared for delivery at the National Conference of Editorial Writers, Johnson said:

"If changing circumstances should lead to a gradual and balanced revision in force levels on both sides, the revision could help gradually to shape a new political environment."

Reviewing U.S. policy toward Europe, Johnson proposed that the United States move ahead on what he called three fronts.

The first would be to "modernize NATO" and strengthen Atlantic institutions. The second, to further the integration of Western Europe, and the third, to "quicken progress in East-West relations."

On the issue of East-West relations, Johnson stressed that "our task is to achieve a reconciliation with the East — a shift from the narrow concept of coexistence to the broader vision of peaceful engagement.

"Americans are prepared to do their part," the President declared, adding:

"Where necessary, we shall defend freedom; where possible, we shall work with the East to build a lasting peace."

Confirms Expanded Tour

LBJ Hopes Asian Trip Brings New Peace Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson hopes to learn from Far Eastern allies during his Manila conference trip new proposals for ending the war in Viet Nam and new plans for postwar security and reconstruction.

The President told a news conference Thursday, in confirming his schedule for a six-nation tour later this month, that at the Manila conference "I want to be a good listener as well as an active participant."

The schedule calls for the President to be in Manila from Oct. 23 to Oct. 27. He will meet with the government heads of South Viet Nam, Korea, Thailand, the Philippines, New Zealand, and Australia — nations with some forces in the Vietnamese war.

Johnson has expanded his trip to the Manila conference into the most extensive Asian tour ever undertaken by an American President. He and Mrs. Johnson plan to visit New Zealand and Australia before the Manila summit, and Thailand, Malaysia and Korea afterwards.

The President was asked at his news conference if there is any possibility he would visit South Viet Nam, too. "No consideration has been given at this time to any such proposal or any such visit," he replied.

But speculation persisted in Saigon that Johnson would make a stop in Viet Nam — even if only for a few hours. The most persistent report in Saigon was that the President may fly to Da Nang, the huge U.S. Marine base that military men described as the most secure base in the country where his presidential plane could land.

A newsman asked Johnson about charges by presidential critics that the trip has political motivations. Johnson declined to comment on the charges, but said: "I just think you have to evaluate the critics and judge your own conclusions."

In discussing the Manila conference, Johnson said he was sure that the Asian leaders "will have some specific plans to suggest" on ways for ending the conflict and "for making that area of the world prosperous and peaceful in the years to come."

Once more, as he has in the past, he left open the door for participation by Communist North Viet Nam in postwar rehabilitation programs, stating that when he spoke of this prospect he was talking of the "development of Viet Nam." Officials said this was a deliberate reference to the whole of the divided country, North as well as South.

Final Action On Trimmed Aid Bill Due

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress may give President Johnson more budget-cutting cooperation today than he requested—in the field of foreign aid.

Ready for House approval, and perhaps final Senate action later in the day, was a compromise bill to appropriate $2.94 billion to finance the foreign aid program for the current fiscal year.

The figure, some $443 million less than the President requested, is the lowest financing for the program in nine years. Administrator William S. Gaud said the total "is pretty hard to swallow."

In a statement issued through a spokesman, Gaud added: "With aid requirements of the developing countries being what they are, it is hard to see how we can do the job ahead with a cut of 13 per cent in a tight budget request."

The compromise measure was worked out Thursday by Senate-House conferees as the President told a news conference that every spending increase voted by Congress makes the need for a tax increase more likely. Previously the President has urged Congress to keep a tighter grip on the purse strings.

Varied Greetings Await Johnsons

TOKYO (AP)—President Johnson can expect an enthusiastic reception and some demonstrations against U.S. policy in Viet Nam on his Asian tour later this month.

But the government of Japan—America's strongest ally in this part of the world—is relieved he isn't coming to visit it.

Officially, Washington said Johnson wished to avoid embarrassing Prime Minister Eisaku Sato with a visit that would tie Japan to allied participants of the Viet Nam war who meet for a summit conference in Manila Oct. 24-25.

Besides the virtual certainty of anti-American demonstrations and possible violence, leaders of Japan's ruling party believe a Johnson visit could do little for the image of Sato, already besmirched by corruption in his own party.

There is little sentiment in Japan in favor of U.S. prosecution of the Vietnamese war although Japanese industries did a $35-million business supplying the American military machine last year.

President Dwight D. Eisenhower was forced to cancel a visit to Japan in 1960 because of illfeeling here over the Japanese-U.S. security treaty. The incident drove Sato's brother, Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi, from office and set back U.S.-Japanese relations.

Speaking to Japanese newsmen Thursday, Vice Foreign Minister Takezo Shimoda said a Johnson visit at this time would stir up suspicion and misunderstanding.

But the general outlook is for big crowds and red-carpet treatment when the U.S. President visits Australia, New Zealand, the Philippines, South Korea, Thailand and Malaysia. Government and press reaction from all six has been enthusiastic.

Heads For Bay Of Campeche

Hurricane Hits Yucatan Peninsula, Path Changes

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Hurricane Inez lashed the northern shore of the Yucatan Peninsula today, but the New Orleans Weather Bureau said there were indications the storm's center had changed course and might miss land as it headed for the Bay of Campeche.

As Inez pelted the coastline with torrential rain, violent wind and high tides, the bureau said reconnaissance planes indicated a change to a west-southwesterly course. It said if the trend continued, the storm would move parallel to the coast for the next 12 to 18 hours, lessening the threat to the peninsula.

It located Inez just off the coast about 100 miles northeast of inland Merida.

With top winds of 110 miles per hour, Inez hurled her fury against the Yucatan Coast after 14 days of battering Caribbean and Bahama islands and the east coast of Florida.

Reports to Mexico City said the hurricane was hitting particularly hard at the northwest corner of Yucatan between the towns of Rio de Lagartos and Progreso.

Inez pushed the sea over the top of Progreso's seawall and flooded streets three blocks back.

MOSCOW (AP)— The Soviet Union today ordered all students from Red China out of the country.

Robbery Case At Wellsville Goes To Jury

Man's Whereabouts On Night Of Theft Big Question Mark

An armed robbery case involving a Wellsville market went to the jury today at Common Pleas Court in Lisbon with one big question hanging over the deliberations:

Where was Timothy Galloway, 28-year-old farm caretaker from Waynesburg, Pa., the night of Jan. 2.

Mrs. Thelma Peterson, clerking that night at the 12th St. Market, testified Galloway was one of two men who held up the store about 9:30. She said Galloway tied her with a rope and took New Year's weekend receipts from the unlocked safe and cash register. The other man has never been identified.

Another state's witness, Mrs. Frances Santimarino of Wellsville, also placed Galloway in the market that night. She said she went to the store to buy bread and observed two men and the clerk in the salesroom. She said she looked at the defendant closely because he was staring at her. She did not learn of the robbery until the next day.

Both women said they never had seen Galloway before, and both said he was clean shaven.

Galloway's chief witness put him 40 miles away in a social club and wearing a goatee.

Mrs. Betty Rhodes testified

Hurricane Hits Yucatan Peninsula, Path Changes

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Hurricane Inez lashed the northern shore of the Yucatan Peninsula today, but the New Orleans Weather Bureau said there were indications the storm's center had changed course and might miss land as it headed for the Bay of Campeche.

As Inez pelted the coastline with torrential rain, violent wind and high tides, the bureau said reconnaissance planes indicated a change to a west-southwesterly course. It said if the trend continued, the storm would move parallel to the coast for the next 12 to 18 hours, lessening the threat to the peninsula.

It located Inez just off the coast about 100 miles northeast of inland Merida.

With top winds of 110 miles per hour, Inez hurled her fury against the Yucatan Coast after 14 days of battering Caribbean and Bahama islands and the east coast of Florida.

Reports to Mexico City said the hurricane was hitting particularly hard at the northwest corner of Yucatan between the towns of Rio de Lagartos and Progreso.

Inez pushed the sea over the top of Progreso's seawall and flooded streets three blocks back.

Robbery Case At Wellsville Goes To Jury

Man's Whereabouts On Night Of Theft Big Question Mark

An armed robbery case involving a Wellsville market went to the jury today at Common Pleas Court in Lisbon with one big question hanging over the deliberations:

Where was Timothy Galloway, 28-year-old farm caretaker from Waynesburg, Pa., the night of Jan. 2.

Mrs. Thelma Peterson, clerking that night at the 12th St. Market, testified Galloway was one of two men who held up the store about 9:30. She said Galloway tied her with a rope and took New Year's weekend receipts from the unlocked safe and cash register. The other man has never been identified.

Another state's witness, Mrs. Frances Santimarino of Wellsville, also placed Galloway in the market that night. She said she went to the store to buy bread and observed two men and the clerk in the salesroom. She said she looked at the defendant closely because he was staring at her. She did not learn of the robbery until the next day.

Both women said they never had seen Galloway before, and both said he was clean shaven.

Galloway's chief witness put him 40 miles away in a social club and wearing a goatee.

Mrs. Betty Rhodes testified

Court Figure Rises $2,654

Municipal Court revenue jumped to $6,531 in September, a gain of $2,654 over August's $3,877, it was shown today in the monthly report of Clerk Wilbur J. Harmon.

The court turned over $5,415 of last month's receipts to the city treasury, a boost of $1,985 from the $3,430 the city received out of the preceding month's revenue. A big gain in receipts from criminal cases accounted for most of the rise in last month's revenue. Criminal cases brought in $4,512 in September, a gain of $1,718 from August's $2,794.

The money turned over to the city, in addition to the criminal receipts, included $391 in costs from civil cases and $510 from cases resulting from State Highway Patrol citations.

In addition to the amount paid the city, the court turned over $522 to the state treasury, $496 to the county treasury and $97 to the Law Library Association.

The total amount received and disbursed by the court in September was $11,307, an increase of $3,949 from the $7,358 handled in the preceding month. The funds handled last month included $4,402 in the civil branch and $6,904 in the criminal branch.

A breakdown of cases showed: 45 civil cases filed in September, 44 disposed of and 199 left pending; 41 city criminal cases filed, 48 disposed of and 88 left pending, and 88 state criminal cases filed, 87 disposed of and 181 left pending.

At Monroeville Cemetery

Help Asked In Vandalism

Trustees of the Monroeville Cemetery, near Salineville, are looking for help as they ponder ways to correct the recent damage inflicted by vandals.

Sixteen tombstones were toppled in the burial site which sits on a scenic hillside.

Trustee Orvan Carter points out that the markers, some weighing as much as 800 pounds, must be righted and put back into place. He explained the cemetery has no vandalism insurance and the problem of erasing the damage is more than a purely mechanical one. Each marker is sealed to its base by lead as protection from the weather and the trustees are not certain just how this operation should be performed nor what specific compound must be used.

They appealed today for area funeral homes or monument establishments to lend them a helping hand, if only in a supervisory role. The trustees, in addition to Carter, are John Carman, Calvin Detcheon and Leslie Griffith.

"We will supply the manpower if some one else will tell us what to do," Carman said.

The trustees cut the grass periodically at their own expense and assign lots.

Those who feel they may be of some assistance are asked to contact any of the above trustees at Salineville.

Flames Damage Shadyside Home

The wall and ceiling of a room of a Shadyside Ave. home were damaged by fire from an overheated stove this morning, the Liverpool Township West Volunteer Fire Department reported.

About $250 damage was reported to the living room of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Johnson, where the blaze broke out about 9.

Assistant Fire Chief Homer Cronin said wood was used as fuel in the coal stove in the living room and the ceiling and wall ignited. Mrs. Johnson summoned firemen from a neighbor's home and the family used a garden hose and dry fire extinguisher to curb the flames until firemen arrived.

Six firemen and two trucks answered the call. The loss — estimated at $150 to the building and $100 smoke damage — is covered by insurance, firemen said.

Hot-iron branding of livestock was practiced in Egypt as early as 2000 B.C. In the 16th century Hernando Cortez introduced branding into North America, using three Christian crosses to mark his cattle and horses. Swine breeders identify their animals with ear markings and notchings. In lumbering areas, where logs are transported by floating down rivers, identification marks are applied to logs with branding axes.

City Credit Union Receives Report

Members of the City Employes Credit Union, meeting Thursday afternoon at City Hall, received a report from D. G. Wilkinson, chairman of the supervisory committee, that an audit for the period April 1-June 30 already has been completed and work will be finished soon on a similar study of third quarter affairs.

Wilkinson, who made the audit in cooperation with Jack Bonner, turned over the first report to Lawrence J. Zollinger, president. Mrs. Phyllis Stewart, secretary, read the minutes; Mrs. Elizabeth Oliver gave the treasurer's report, and Francis Wise, head of the credit committee, reported on loans granted in the preceding month. He submitted two applications for membership, which were approved.

The group approved a special effort to enroll new members during November and December. Mrs. Helen Steffen will be in charge. It was announced that President Johnson has proclaimed Oct. 20 as International Credit Union Day. Mayor George Willshaw may issue a similar proclamation, the group said.

Holiday plans will be discussed at the next meeting Nov. 10.

Flames Damage Shadyside Home

The wall and ceiling of a room of a Shadyside Ave. home were damaged by fire from an overheated stove this morning, the Liverpool Township West Volunteer Fire Department reported.

About $250 damage was reported to the living room of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Johnson, where the blaze broke out about 9.

Assistant Fire Chief Homer Cronin said wood was used as fuel in the coal stove in the living room and the ceiling and wall ignited. Mrs. Johnson summoned firemen from a neighbor's home and the family used a garden hose and dry fire extinguisher to curb the flames until firemen arrived.

Six firemen and two trucks answered the call. The loss—estimated at $150 to the building and $100 smoke damage—is covered by insurance, firemen said.

Hot-iron branding of livestock was practiced in Egypt as early as 2000 B.C. In the 16th century Hernando Cortez introduced branding into North America, using three Christian crosses to mark his cattle and horses. Swine breeders identify their animals with ear markings and notchings. In lumbering areas, where logs are transported by floating down rivers, identification marks are applied to logs with branding axes.

City Credit Union Receives Report

Members of the City Employes Credit Union, meeting Thursday afternoon at City Hall, received a report from D. G. Wilkinson, chairman of the supervisory committee, that an audit for the period April 1-June 30 already has been completed and work will be finished soon on a similar study of third quarter affairs.

Wilkinson, who made the audit in cooperation with Jack Bonner, turned over the first report to Lawrence J. Zollinger, president. Mrs. Phyllis Stewart, secretary, read the minutes; Mrs. Elizabeth Oliver gave the treasurer's report, and Francis Wise, head of the credit committee, reported on loans granted in the preceding month. He submitted two applications for membership, which were approved.

The group approved a special effort to enroll new members during November and December. Mrs. Helen Steffen will be in charge. It was announced that President Johnson has proclaimed Oct. 20 as International Credit Union Day. Mayor George Willshaw may issue a similar proclamation, the group said.

Holiday plans will be discussed at the next meeting Nov. 10.

Tiresome Squabble Over Ruby

Legalistic marching up and down and in and out in the Jack Ruby episode is doing more damage to the legal profession than it is doing to the man who shot Lee Oswald in plain view of millions of television watchers.

Here was one case in a chain of lifetimes that was open and shut—a murder with millions of eyewitnesses.

There could be no doubt about what the defendant had done. He had committed premeditated murder. Otherwise, he would have had no gun in his possession and would not have gone to the trouble to be at a place where he could get a shot at his intended victim. He had no right to be there.

It was not germane to his trial, it had no bearing on his crime, that he was carrying out the quick justice that millions of other Americans would have prescribed for Oswald under the circumstances. If the Texas law against murder meant anything, it meant Ruby had murdered Oswald with premeditation—with malice.

Yet, nearly three years later lawyers are still fooling with the scales of justice in this tiresome squabble over what is to become of Jack Ruby.

His first trial ended in a death sentence after a jury had deliberated a little more than two hours. But it had taken 14 days and the questioning of 162 prospective jurors to impanel a jury—and that charade still would be in progress if the defense had not run out of peremptory challenges.

So now the marching up and down and in and out must start all over again to sew up legally what millions saw with their own eyes on television and dozens saw first-hand in the basement of the Dallas Municipal Building Nov. 24, 1963, when Dallas police tried to transfer Oswald to another prison—a murder committed by Jack Ruby.

There is no particular animosity toward Ruby as a person, but it is undeniable that he killed Oswald, undeniable that his act made it impossible to bring Oswald to trial, undeniable that his case has given the legal profession a black eye by letting it do what some of its practitioners seem to glory in doing—making the law ridiculous.

Or is the lay public supposed to understand ex post facto applications of judicial rulings that hadn't been made in 1963 and legalistic quibbles about the first crime of cold-blooded murder ever performed in the plain view of uncounted millions of spectators?

That would be asking too much.

Face The Music

Vandalism has reached another new low with the desecration of a cemetery in the Salineville area.

Heavy tombstones marking long revered graves were toppled in this latest episode of senseless destruction.

Whether those who perpetrated the deed were drunk, hopped up by pep pills or just plain idotic, only they themselves know. It's doubtful whether what they did seems so funny to them today.

While it probably is far too much to expect, they could redeem themselves in the eyes of their fellow men, and certainly ease their own conscience, by coming forth and volunteering to right the wrong for which they are responsible.

Cleaning up vandal-hit cemetery is no easy task. So all help undoubtedly would be appreciated by those entrusted with the maintenance of the grave sites.

It would be an act of considerable magnitude if the guilty had the courage to step up and face the music.

No Reform Forthcoming

Since 1907 attempts have been made to bring about reform in political campaign financing.

A new program supported by the Senate Finance Committee would finance presidential election campaigns out of federal income taxes.

Under the measure, which now goes before the Senate, a taxpayer would check a box of his tax form if he wished $1 of the total to go into a presidential campaign fund.

Every four years, Republican and Democratic parties would get equal shares of the proceeds with the total to be limited by the number of votes cast for the two major candidates in the last presidential election.

A maximum of $1 per each vote cast would be paid. Thus, if 60 million citizens had cast ballots in the last election, each party would receive $30 million.

The first federal law to curb contributions was enacted in 1907. Corporations and national banks were forbidden to make political donations.

Additional legislation has been enacted through the years, but a means always has been found to skirt regulations.

The idea for federally financed presidential campaigns is not new.

It was first proposed by Theodore Roosevelt in 1907 when he told Congress the need for large campaign funds would vanish if federal funds were appropriated to finance national elections.

The principle underlying the proposal is good. Reform is needed in campaign fund policies that depend upon large individual or special-interest group contributions.

But the truth is, any program that provides federal operating capital for a party would free large donors to place additional money, directly or indirectly where it would have the most influence.

Instead of reforming present policy, the measure actually would increase power of individuals and organizations already exercising great control.

Letter From Max

Dear Truman Twill:

Things could be looking up soon for us prestige-wise, Twill, because I am considering forming a Max's Club, with memberships starting at $1,000 a year. I will be the treasurer.

It will be patterned after Lyndon Johnson's Club, and he will be the first man I invite to join. You will be second. You can be president.

As you know, the President's Club enables members to be chummy with President Johnson, Vice President Humphrey, senators, governors, cabinet assistants and a whole slew of socialites and tycoons.

My club will give all of these politicians and industrial leaders the opportunity of getting on a first-name basis with the real wielders of power—the men-in-the-street.

You couldn't hardly find any harder core men-in-the-street than you and me. Our club will give top men a chance to find out first-hand what bottom men are really thinking.

It will be sort of like the grass going to the grassroots, where growth begins and nourishment comes from.

First and foremost, we will have to remember never to show the slightest hint of arrogance or superiority in dealing with these $1,000-a-year members, no matter how much they owe us for their exalted positions.

All these big wheelers and dealers will come into this club expecting to get a friendly handclasp, a smile and a pat on the back, and that is just what they will get.

Our primary concern must be to keep their morale on a high level and increase their confidence in us common people, who, after all, are the backbone of the nation.

Of course if they seek our advice on major policy or our help on any business deals as fellow club members we should be expected to give them legitimate assistance.

The fact they are on top necessarily limits their vision in many instances. That is why we on the bottom can be of great help to them. We have the advantage of looking upward from the broad bottom of the spectrum and can get a much wider view than is possible from the narrow confines of the top.

You and President Johnson should hit it off exceptionally well because you both are such ardent garden and dog fanciers. It should cause no real obstacle just because you happen to specialize in petunias whereas Johnson has one of the outstanding rose gardens in the U.S.

Never, never ask Vice President Humphrey, the former pharmacist, if he happens to have any free samples of pills in his pocket for your migraine. He is sick of having people ask him that.

And don't ask the Treasury official if he has any samples.

Aside from these few "don'ts," we should have clear sailing.

The President's Club is reported to have taken in some $6 million in its five-year history to aid the Democrats. We should try not to spend any of the $1,000 membership fees until we have at least $1 million, don't you think.

Faithfully yours,
Max

We'll Try Anything

Worry over traffic fatalities is reaching another climax.

Something must be done about them — that is the theme. Too many people are being mashed and mutilated. That is the accusation.

It's hard on the people, hard on the insurance companies, hard on the economy.

It's also hard on the baffled politicians twisting their hands and saying something must be done to keep traffic fatalities from going up, up, up. They don't know what to do, but they can't admit it.

Every year we add millions more cars to the total, millions more drivers, millions more miles.

That's why fatalities and the mutilations keep going up, up, up.

It is the same reason more people are killed in plane accidents than used to be killed when planes were underpowered kites capable of carrying one or two persons. There weren't as many planes or people in the old days.

Can traffic mashings and mutilations be curbed?

This is America which can do anything that needs doing— rout Communism in Asia, shoot the moon, feed the world, abolish poverty, eradicate the uneducable, outlaw violence, control storms—you name it. We will try anything.

But this also is America where the individual cherishes his right to do as he pleases, public authority to the contrary notwithstanding, so don't bet on the success of attacks on highway collisions and mishaps.

The attacks will have no more impact than a canary bird landing on an elephant's back. Few will be intended to have any more impact.

Politicians will not knowingly back anything that might backfire and put them on the street or behind bars themselves.

They will not wittingly back any law they cannot bend for the convenience of their friends.

Auto manufacturers will not forego that part of the potential market interested in cars that will go 120 m.p.h., though no public road has an allowable speed over 80.

Everything in the Republic is cranked up for a fantastic rate of automotive mashings and mutilations and anyone who lays a rude hand on this machinery is going to get hurt.

A high rate of death and injury is built into the automotive era. Nothing significant is going to be done about it.

Instead of having a bear by the tail we have a 300-horsepower engine by the tail.

Key Man At The Controls

Political Showdown Looming

By Victor Riesel

NEW YORK — In Prague, where I jousted on the airwaves with the Czech Huntley-Brinkley, and in Washington there is deep misunderstanding of the nature of a recent imposing political showdown on the sidewalks of New York.

Victor Riesel

A primary congressional fight between two Democrats, the veteran Leonard Farbstein and the challenger Theodore Weiss, was billed behind the Iron Curtain and as far off as Alaska as a referendum on Viet Nam and Lyndon Johnson.

It was not. It was a battle between forces of the politically skilled needle trades union, the International Ladies' Garment Workers, led by its president Louis Stulberg and other labor forces on the Farbstein side, and on the other side all the glamour of the theater, the movies, the TV, the folksingers.

Viet Nam was an issue. But really not much of one. This was a struggle for the citizenry everywhere to re-analyze.

It was a battle of the regulars against the Irregulars—of "the organization" against the so-called reformers carrying Robert Kennedy's banner into battle.

IT WAS A COMPETITION between the older and the newer; the stand up bloc of pro-labor congressmen (87 of whom, ranging all the way from Hawaii to Alaska, wired Farbstein support) and the new arrivals of pacifists whom Mr. Stulberg refers to as "beatniks."

The basic issue was: Who shall take over the liberal-labor section of the Democratic party? In Washington some days before the election when Farbstein was under seige, the liberal-labor congressional bloc let it be known it was watching to see whether labor would deliver to one of its own.

Long before this message wafted up to New York, Mr. Stulberg and his predecessor, honorary president David Dubinsky, had sent in their legions.

Battling the stars of stage, screen and TV were scores of ladies' underwear makers, blouse and skirt workers and garment cutters. There were the girls of Local 62 who manned the switchboards and helped to distribute 100,000 pieces of Farbstein literature. There were the Spanish-speaking ladies of Local 23 who worked the club on Clinton St. in the Puerto Rican precincts.

THERE WAS MONEY, of course, as well as manpower. Mr. Stulberg had been angered by the now reform-laden Liberal party's rejection of the "lackluster" Farbstein. Luster, however, was not issue. It made very little difference to Stulberg that Mr. Weiss had lined up such Robert Kennedy stalwarts as Congressman William Ryan and strategists as Bill Haddad who had worked for similar intra-Democratic party insurgents in Chicago and points west.

It made no difference that on Weiss' side were such marquee names as Harry Belafonte, Tony Randall, Chita ("West Side Story") Rivera, Theodore ("Sound of Music") Bikel, Ruby Dee and Ossie Davis, Phyllis Newman, Melvin and Helen Gahagan Douglas—and Norman Thomas.

They were backing the outs against the ins. It was rehearsal for political rebellion across the land. The pattern was there.

To men such as Louis Stulberg, as well as Joe Curran of the National Maritime Union and Ted Gleason of the International Longshoremen's Association (which put loudspeaker trucks into the street for Farbstein), it was glamour against guts.

TO STULBERG and the other labor leaders, Farbstein and similar "regulars" in Congress were stand-up men.

"It's not just a matter of rewarding our friends," said Stulberg. "Farbstein took the hard way. He stood by all his convictions. There is more than Viet Nam here.

"He has been one of labor's staunchest friends. I believe the Liberal party should have endorsed him. I won't turn my back on him. His liberal record will match anyone in the Congress.

"Here is a man with an excellent labor record. We do not like the beatniks. They fought Farbstein and whipped up an issue simply because they want their type of man in. Farbstein is an outstanding congressman. He has been important in the passage of liberal and labor legislation. He is not one who only follows. He leads.

"Mark you, I don't disagree with dissenters. But they do make strange politics. Backing Farbstein is not just a matter of rewarding our friends. It takes courage to stand up against beatnik politics. So I did not and will not turn my back on him or other such congressmen."

THIS IS THE SENTIMENT of the progressive labor leaders. They believe they saw the issue clearly. There was no Viet Nam issue four years ago when the same group, behind another candidate, lost to Farbstein by 4,500 votes. Two years ago, Farbstein won by 2,500 over Bob Kennedy's colleague Bill Haddad. The other Tuesday Farbstein's margin was down to some 950 votes.

The issue is the battle between the regulars and the irregulars.

So it will be in hundreds of districts from now on, whether in New York's rag jungle, Chicago's "back of the yards" or Los Angeles' canyons.

This 'n That

The greatest thunderstorm activity in the world occurs in Java, where such storms happen on an average of 225 days per year. It is estimated that at any one moment there are about 1,800 thunderstorms in progress throughout the world, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Grin And Bear It

"I'm so glad our autumn leaves still are the traditional golden brown instead of following the fad for decorator colors!"

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

Japanese Ware 'Give-Away' Criticized by Potters Union. This article, which appeared on Page 17 of The Review of Sept. 30 states in part: "Standard Oil has made the premium offer in several Ohio communities, but not in the greater East Liverpool area, so far as can be determined."

Apparently the writer of this article made no effort to determine the facts with reference to the greater East Liverpool area or in connection with the statement "In several Ohio communities."

On Sunday morning, Sept. 11, the writer personally talked with the manager of the downtown Sohio station, across the street from the East Liverpool downtown post office. At the same time, he examined the Japanese china samples on display in the window, and observed the master cartons or cases of inventory, prominently stamped "Japan" and showing evidence that these large shipping containers came direct from Japan.

The local radio station revealed that the managers of three outlying area Standard Oil of Ohio stations have phoned in to advise that they are not offering the Jap china. During the past few weeks, our own salesmen working in the Cincinnati area and southern Ohio have reported Sohio stations displaying the Jap china in every single town and village they have visited.

The manager of the downtown Sohio Station did indicate, to the writer, that he had no choice as to whether or not he would run the Jap china promotion. This possibly is due to the fact that his is a wholly-owned Standard Oil of Ohio Station as contrasted to the three outlying stations which possibly are "owner managed" with Sohio affiliation.

THE FOLLOWING copy of the writer's letter to Standard Oil of Ohio is self-explanatory.

"It seems to us that your 'public image' has recently been very greatly damaged, particularly in eastern Ohio, east of Columbus both north and south. We refer to the highly-publicized Japanese dinnerware promotion currently offered in connection with Sohio service stations.

"Your local, downtown, East Liverpool station is prominently displaying the dinnerware samples with a number of master carton cases, of dinnerware, prominently stamped "Japan" thereon. He advises that you have approximately 3,300 stations in the state. This, of course, could be very inaccurate information, but we all know that you are represented prominently in all metropolitan areas and in every small town, and many crossroads, within the state.

"The fact that this same dinnerware pattern, and plan, was distributed a few years ago by Atlantic Oil & Refining Co. in the Pittsburgh area and more recently by Standard Oil of California on the west coast last year is, of course, not the point at issue. You perhaps are familiar with the front page article run in "The Potters Herald" Thursday, Sept. 29, a publication of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters, AFL-CIO and headed "Sohio Corp. Offers Japanese China To Customers." Our local radio station is blasting, repeatedly, publicity on the promotion. It has been, according to information that has come to us, a very active discussion topic in areas of Steubenville, Cambridge, Crooksville and Roseville, Marietta, Cincinnati, etc.

"We, and many major area potteries, have excellent and 'substantial business increase' programs operating in food markets, drugstores, gas station chains, etc.

"Enclosed is a 10-page statement submitted by John Hall, president of the Hall China Co. of East Liverpool, Ohio, on behalf of the United States Potters Association on Sept. 28 before the General Subcommittee on Labor of the United States House of Representatives. In addition to "reading this brief," he was questioned, before the committee, for more than one hour. You might be interested to note that one of his exhibits consisted of a four-piece place setting of four Japanese china along with the colored brochure which you mailed to various Sohio charge accounts.

"It is regretful that your company has been shortsighted, in embarking upon this promotion, in this state of Ohio. Over the years we feel that you have had such a superlative image and justified by splendid products, service, philanthropies and general community civic - mindedness in all areas within the state.

Legalistic marching up and down and in and out in the Jack Ruby episode is doing more damage to the legal profession than it is doing to the man who shot Lee Oswald in plain view of millions of television watchers.

Here was one case in a chain of lifetimes that was open and shut—a murder with millions of eyewitnesses.

There could be no doubt about what the defendant had done. He had committed premeditated murder. Otherwise, he would have had no gun in his possession and would not have gone to the trouble to be at a place where he could get a shot at his intended victim. He had no right to be there.

It was not germane to his trial, it had no bearing on his crime, that he was carrying out the quick justice that millions of other Americans would have prescribed for Oswald under the circumstances. If the Texas law against murder meant anything, it meant Ruby had murdered Oswald with premeditation—with malice.

Yet, nearly three years later lawyers are still fooling with the scales of justice in this tiresome squabble over what is to become of Jack Ruby.

His first trial ended in a death sentence after a jury had deliberated a little more than two hours. But it had taken 14 days and the questioning of 162 prospective jurors to impanel a jury—and that charade still would be in progress if the defense had not run out of peremptory challenges.

So now the marching up and down and in and out must start all over again to sew up legally what millions saw with their own eyes on television and dozens saw first-hand in the basement of the Dallas Municipal Building Nov. 24, 1963, when Dallas police tried to transfer Oswald to another prison—a murder committed by Jack Ruby.

There is no particular animosity toward Ruby as a person, but it is undeniable that he killed Oswald, undeniable that his act made it impossible to bring Oswald to trial, undeniable that his case has given the legal profession a black eye by letting it do what some of its practitioners seem to glory in doing—making the law ridiculous.

Or is the lay public supposed to understand ex post facto applications of judicial rulings that hadn't been made in 1963 and legalistic quibbles about the first crime of cold-blooded murder ever performed in the plain view of uncounted millions of spectators?

That would be asking too much.

Face The Music

Vandalism has reached another new low with the desecration of a cemetery in the Salineville area.

Heavy tombstones marking long revered graves were toppled in this latest episode of senseless destruction.

Whether those who perpetrated the deed were drunk, hopped up by pep pills or just plain idotic, only they themselves know. It's doubtful whether what they did seems so funny to them today.

While it probably is far too much to expect, they could redeem themselves in the eyes of their fellow men, and certainly ease their own conscience, by coming forth and volunteering to right the wrong for which they are responsible.

Cleaning up vandal-hit cemetery is no easy task. So all help undoubtedly would be appreciated by those entrusted with the maintenance of the grave sites.

It would be an act of considerable magnitude if the guilty had the courage to step up and face the music.

No Reform Forthcoming

Since 1907 attempts have been made to bring about reform in political campaign financing.

A new program supported by the Senate Finance Committee would finance presidential election campaigns out of federal income taxes.

Under the measure, which now goes before the Senate, a taxpayer would check a box of his tax form if he wished $1 of the total to go into a presidential campaign fund.

Every four years, Republican and Democratic parties would get equal shares of the proceeds with the total to be limited by the number of votes cast for the two major candidates in the last presidential election.

A maximum of $1 per each vote cast would be paid. Thus, if 60 million citizens had cast ballots in the last election, each party would receive $30 million.

The first federal law to curb contributions was enacted in 1907. Corporations and national banks were forbidden to make political donations.

Additional legislation has been enacted through the years, but a means always has been found to skirt regulations.

The idea for federally financed presidential campaigns is not new.

It was first proposed by Theodore Roosevelt in 1907 when he told Congress the need for large campaign funds would vanish if federal funds were appropriated to finance national elections.

The principle underlying the proposal is good. Reform is needed in campaign fund policies that depend upon large individual or special-interest group contributions.

But the truth is, any program that provides federal operating capital for a party would free large donors to place additional money, directly or indirectly where it would have the most influence.

Instead of reforming present policy, the measure actually would increase power of individuals and organizations already exercising great control.

Letter From Max

By Martin Miller

Dear Truman Twill:

Things could be looking up soon for us prestige-wise, Twill, because I am considering forming a Max's Club, with memberships starting at $1,000 a year. I will be the treasurer.

It will be patterned after Lyndon Johnson's Club, and he will be the first man I invite to join. You will be second. You can be president.

As you know, the President's Club enables members to be chummy with President Johnson, Vice President Humphrey, senators, governors, cabinet assistants and a whole slew of socialites and tycoons.

My club will give all of these politicians and industrial leaders the opportunity of getting on a first-name basis with the real wielders of power—the men-in-the-street.

You couldn't hardly find any harder core men-in-the-street than you and me. Our club will give top men a chance to find out first-hand what bottom men are really thinking.

It will be sort of like the grass going to the grassroots, where growth begins and nourishment comes from.

First and foremost, we will have to remember never to show the slightest hint of arrogance or superiority in dealing with these $1,000-a-year members, no matter how much they owe us for their exalted positions.

All these big wheelers and dealers will come into this club expecting to get a friendly handclasp, a smile and a pat on the back, and that is just what they will get.

Our primary concern must be to keep their morale on a high level and increase their confidence in us common people, who, after all, are the backbone of the nation.

Of course if they seek our advice on major policy or our help on any business deals as fellow club members we should be expected to give them legitimate assistance.

The fact they are on top necessarily limits their vision in many instances. That is why we on the bottom can be of great help to them. We have the advantage of looking upward from the broad bottom of the spectrum and can get a much wider view than is possible from the narrow confines of the top.

You and President Johnson should hit it off exceptionally well because you both are such ardent garden and dog fanciers. It should cause no real obstacle just because you happen to specialize in petunias whereas Johnson has one of the outstanding rose gardens in the U.S.

Never, never ask Vice President Humphrey, the former pharmacist, if he happens to have any free samples of pills in his pocket for your migraine. He is sick of having people ask him that.

And don't ask the Treasury official if he has any samples.

Aside from these few "don'ts," we should have clear sailing.

The President's Club is reported to have taken in some $6 million in its five-year history to aid the Democrats. We should try not to spend any of the $1,000 membership fees until we have at least $1 million, don't you think.

Faithfully yours,
Max

We'll Try Anything

By Truman Twill

Worry over traffic fatalities is reaching another climax.

Something must be done about them — that is the theme. Too many people are being mashed and mutilated. That is the accusation.

It's hard on the people, hard on the insurance companies, hard on the economy.

It's also hard on the baffled politicians twisting their hands and saying something must be done to keep traffic fatalities from going up, up, up. They don't know what to do, but they can't admit it.

Every year we add millions more cars to the total, millions more drivers, millions more miles.

That's why fatalities and the mutilations keep going up, up, up.

It is the same reason more people are killed in plane accidents than used to be killed when planes were underpowered kites capable of carrying one or two persons. There weren't as many planes or people in the old days.

Can traffic mashings and mutilations be curbed?

This is America which can do anything that needs doing— rout Communism in Asia, shoot the moon, feed the world, abolish poverty, educate the uneducable, outlaw violence, control storms—you name it. We will try anything.

But this also is America where the individual cherishes his right to do as he pleases, public authority to the contrary notwithstanding, so don't bet on the success of attacks on highway collisions and mishaps.

The attacks will have no more impact than a canary bird landing on an elephant's back. Few will be intended to have any more impact.

Politicians will not knowingly back anything that might backfire and put them on the street or behind bars themselves.

They will not wittingly back any law they cannot bend for the convenience of their friends.

Auto manufacturers will not forego that part of the potential market interested in cars that will go 120 m.p.h., though no public road has an allowable speed over 80.

Everything in the Republic is cranked up for a fantastic rate of automotive mashings and mutilations and anyone who lays a rude hand on this machinery is going to get hurt.

A high rate of death and injury is built into the automotive era. Nothing significant is going to be done about it.

Instead of having a bear by the tail we have a 300-horsepower engine by the tail.

Key Man At The Controls

Political Showdown Looming

By Victor Riesel

NEW YORK — In Prague, where I jousted on the airwaves with the Czech Huntley-Brinkley, and in Washington there is deep misunderstanding of the nature of a recent imposing political showdown on the sidewalks of New York.

Victor Riesel

A primary congressional fight between two Democrats, the veteran Leonard Farbstein and the challenger Theodore Weiss, was billed behind the Iron Curtain and as far off as Alaska as a referendum on Viet Nam and Lyndon Johnson.

It was not. It was a battle between forces of the politically skilled needle trades union, the International Ladies' Garment Workers, led by its president Louis Stulberg and other labor forces on the Farbstein side, and on the other side all the glamour of the theater, the movies, the TV, the folksingers.

Viet Nam was an issue. But really not much of one. This was a struggle for the citizenry everywhere to re-analyze.

It was a battle of the regulars against the irregulars—of "the organization" against the so-called reformers carrying Robert Kennedy's banner into battle.

IT WAS A COMPETITION between the older and the newer; the stand up bloc of pro-labor congressmen (87 of whom, ranging all the way from Hawaii to Alaska, wired Farbstein support) and the new arrivals of pacifists whom Mr. Stulberg refers to as "beatniks."

The basic issue was: Who shall take over the liberal-labor section of the Democratic party? In Washington some days before the election when Farbstein was under seige, the liberal-labor congressional bloc let it be known it was watching to see whether labor would deliver to one of its own.

Long before this message wafted up to New York, Mr. Stulberg and his predecessor, honorary president David Dubinsky, had sent in their legions.

Battling the stars of stage, screen and TV were scores of ladies' underwear makers, blouse and skirt workers and garment cutters. There were the girls of Local 62 who manned the switchboards and helped to distribute 100,000 pieces of Farbstein literature. There were the Spanish-speaking ladies of Local 23 who worked the club on Clinton St. in the Puerto Rican precincts.

THERE WAS MONEY, of course, as well as manpower. Mr. Stulberg had been angered by the now reform-laden Liberal party's rejection of the "lackluster" Farbstein. Luster, however, was not issue. It made very little difference to Stulberg that Mr. Weiss had lined up such Robert Kennedy stalwarts as Congressman William Ryan and strategists as Bill Haddad who had worked for similar intra-Democratic party insurgents in Chicago and points west.

It made no difference that on Weiss' side were such marquee names as Harry Belafonte, Tony Randall, Chita ("West Side Story") Rivera, Theodore ("Sound of Music") Bikel, Ruby Dee and Ossie Davis, Phyllis Newman, Melvin and Helen Gahagan Douglas—and Norman Thomas.

They were backing the outs against the ins. It was rehearsal for political rebellion across the land. The pattern was there.

To men such as Louis Stulberg, as well as Joe Curran of the National Maritime Union and Ted Gleason of the International Longshoremen's Association (which put loudspeaker trucks into the street for Farbstein), it was glamour against guts.

TO STULBERG and the other labor leaders, Farbstein and similar "regulars" in Congress were stand-up men.

"It's not just a matter of rewarding our friends," said Stulberg. "Farbstein took the hard way. He stood by all his convictions. There is more than Viet Nam here.

"He has been one of labor's staunchest friends. I believe the Liberal party should have endorsed him. I won't turn my back on him. His liberal record will match anyone in the Congress.

"Here is a man with an excellent labor record. We do not like the beatniks. They fought Farbstein and whipped up an issue simply because they want their type of man in. Farbstein is an outstanding congressman. He has been important in the passage of liberal and labor legislation. He is not one who only follows. He leads.

"Mark you, I don't disagree with dissenters. But they do make strange politics. Backing Farbstein is not just a matter of rewarding our friends. It takes courage to stand up against beatnik politics. So I did not and will not turn my back on him or other such congressmen."

THIS IS THE SENTIMENT of the progressive labor leaders. They believe they saw the issue clearly. There was no Viet Nam issue four years ago when the same group, behind another candidate, lost to Farbstein by 4,500 votes. Two years ago, Farbstein won by 2,500 over Bob Kennedy's colleague Bill Haddad. The other Tuesday Farbstein's margin was down to some 950 votes.

The issue is the battle between the regulars and the irregulars.

So it will be in hundreds of districts from now on, whether in New York's rag jungle, Chicago's "back of the yards" or Los Angeles' canyons.

This 'n That

The greatest thunderstorm activity in the world occurs in Java, where such storms happen on an average of 225 days per year. It is estimated that at any one moment there are about 1,800 thunderstorms in progress throughout the world, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

Japanese Ware 'Give-Away' Criticized by Potters Union. This article, which appeared on Page 17 of The Review of Sept. 30 states in part: "Standard Oil has made the premium offer in several Ohio communities, but not in the greater East Liverpool area, so far as can be determined."

Apparently the writer of this article made no effort to determine the facts with reference to the greater East Liverpool area or in connection with the statement "In several Ohio communities."

On Sunday morning, Sept. 11, the writer personally talked with the manager of the downtown Sohio station, across the street from the East Liverpool downtown post office. At the same time, he examined the Japanese china samples on display in the window, and observed the master cartons or cases of inventory, prominently stamped "Japan" and showing evidence that these large shipping containers came direct from Japan.

The local radio station revealed that the managers of three outlying area Standard Oil of Ohio stations have phoned in to advise that they are not offering the Jap china. During the past few weeks, our own salesmen working in the Cincinnati area and southern Ohio have reported Sohio stations displaying the Jap china in every single town and village they have visited.

The manager of the downtown Sohio Station did indicate, to the writer, that he had no choice as to whether or not he would run the Jap china promotion. This possibly is due to the fact that his is a wholly-owned Standard Oil of Ohio Station as contrasted to the three outlying stations which possibly are "owner managed" with Sohio affiliation.

THE FOLLOWING copy of the writer's letter to Standard Oil of Ohio is self-explanatory.

"It seems to us that your 'public image' has recently been very greatly damaged, particularly in eastern Ohio, east of Columbus both north and south. We refer to the highly-publicized Japanese dinnerware promotion currently offered in connection with Sohio service stations.

"Your local, downtown, East Liverpool station is prominently displaying the dinnerware samples with a number of master carton cases, of dinnerware, prominently stamped "Japan" thereon. He advises that you have approximately 3,300 stations in the state. This, of course, could be very inaccurate information, but we all know that you are represented prominently in all metropolitan areas and in every small town, and many crossroads, within the state.

"The fact that this same dinnerware pattern, and plan, was distributed a few years ago by Atlantic Oil & Refining Co. in the Pittsburgh area and more recently by Standard Oil of California on the west coast last year is, of course, not the point at issue. You perhaps are familiar with the front page article run in "The Potters Herald" Thursday, Sept. 29, a publication of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters, AFL-CIO and headed "Sohio Corp. Offers Japanese China To Customers." Our local radio station is blasting, repeatedly, publicity on the promotion. It has been, according to information that has come to us, a very active discussion topic in areas of Steubenville, Cambridge, Crooksville and Roseville, Marietta, Cincinnati, etc.

"We, and many major area potteries, have excellent and 'substantial business increase' programs operating in food markets, drugstores, gas station chains, etc.

"Enclosed is a 10-page statement submitted by John Hall, president of the Hall China Co. of East Liverpool, Ohio, on behalf of the United States Potters Association on Sept. 28 before the General Subcommittee on Labor of the United States House of Representatives. In addition to "reading this brief," he was questioned, before the committee, for more than one hour. You might be interested to note that one of his exhibits consisted of a four-piece place setting of four Japanese china along with the colored brochure which you mailed to various Sohio charge accounts.

"It is regretful that your company has been shortsighted, in embarking upon this promotion, in this state of Ohio. Over the years we feel that you have had such a superlative image and justified by splendid products, service, philanthropies and general community civic - mindedness in all areas within the state.

D. G. BOYCE

Driver Fined For Speeding

A 37-year-old Wellsville man was fined $25 and $7.50 costs today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge of speeding 50 miles an hour Thursday afternoon in the 20-mile zone on W. 8th St. in front of Westgate School.

Charles F. Geer of 739 Buckeye Ave. was cited at 3:25 p.m. by Patrolman Paul A. Burson, who pursued him south along the East Liverpool - Wellsville Rd. before forcing him to a halt.

Geer, who had not posted a bond, failed to appear when court convened at 9 a. m. and the judge ordered a bench warrant issued for his arrest. He appeared about 10 minutes late, so the judge withdrew the order for the capias and heard the case. He also lectured Geer for his belated appearance.

Two Jefferson County youths also were penalized on speeding charges filed by the State Highway Patrol following their arrests Tuesday night on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd.

William Howard Bucey, 19, of 1304 Madison St., Toronto, was fined $10 and costs on a charge of speeding 50 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone. The patrol said he was cited at 11:30 Tuesday night.

Questioned by the judge, Bucey said he works part time at a Toronto service station and attends the Kent State Academic Center in East Liverpool.

Richard Glenn Thomas, 18, of Irondale R.D. 1 was fined $15 and costs on a charge of speeding 65 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone. The patrol said he was cited at 11 p. m. Tuesday.

Man Awaits Hearing On Charge At Lisbon

LISBON — Godfrey Mayhew, 31, of near New Cumberland is awaiting a hearing in mayor's court on a charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol. He was cited at 12:55 a.m. today.

Officer Richard Koffel said he stopped Mayhew's car after it almost hit the cruiser on N. Market St. Two hitchhikers in Mayhew's auto told the officer Mayhew nearly hit a tractor-trailer on Route 30 near the State Highway Patrol post and almost wrecked on the Square while turning from Route 30 onto Route 45.

Yardstick For Burning Calories

Physical activity is the big You point It's a healthy sign when you readers ask for the energy cost of various activities. out that calorie charts are available, but the energy cost of activities is difficult to find. There's a reason. Calorie variable in calorie expenditure, charts are impersonal.

Ida Jean Kain

The calorie content of a given food of a specific weight does not vary. The energy cost of activities does vary, for it is proportional to your body weight. In any type of activity where the whole body is used, calorie expenditure will depend on an individual's weight.

The following chart gives the energy cost in calories per minute of a person weighing 130 pounds, and of a person weighing 160 pounds, doing household tasks, routine and recreational activities involving exercise. These figures are adapted from Foundations of Nutrition, sixth edition, by Taylor and Pye, MacMillan Publishers.

In applying the figures you can make appropriate adjustment for your own weight. Increase or decrease the calories used per minute by the percentage you vary from the 130 or 160 pounds given in the table. For example: A person weighing 200 pounds will burn 25 per cent more calories. Walking at the rate of 3 miles per hour, he will burn 4.6 calories per minute.

Clip and save the chart if you wish to have it for reference.

Beaver Mental Health Group Gets Set For Annual Meeting

"Adolescence—Living Through It and Living With It" will be the subject of Dr. Naomi Ragins' address when she speaks at the annual meeting of the Beaver County Mental Health Society Oct. 18 at 6:30 p.m.

The dinner meeting will be held at the Jewish Community Center on Route 51 in Chippewa Township.

Driver Fined For Speeding

A 37-year-old Wellsville man was fined $25 and $7.50 costs today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge of speeding 50 miles an hour Thursday afternoon in the 20-mile zone on W. 8th St. in front of Westgate School.

Geer, who had not posted a bond, failed to appear when court convened at 9 a. m. and the judge ordered a bench warrant issued for his arrest. He appeared about 10 minutes late, so the judge withdrew the order for the capias and heard the case. He also lectured Geer for his belated appearance.

Questioned by the judge, Bucey said he works part time at a Toronto service station and attends the Kent State Academic Center in East Liverpool.

Richard Glenn Thomas, 18, of Irondale R.D. 1 was fined $15 and costs on a charge of speeding 65 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone. The patrol said he was cited at 11 p. m. Tuesday.

Yardstick For Burning Calories

Physical activity is the big key. It's a healthy sign when you and your readers ask for the energy cost of various activities. You point out that calorie charts are available, but the energy cost of activities is difficult to find. There's a reason. Calorie variable in calorie expenditure. charts are impersonal.

Ida Jean Kain

The calorie content of a given food of a specific weight does not vary. The energy cost of activities does vary, for it is proportional to your body weight. In any type of activity where the whole body is used, calorie expenditure will depend on an individual's weight.

The following chart gives the energy cost in calories per minute of a person weighing 130 pounds, and of a person weighing 160 pounds, doing household tasks, routine and recreational activities involving exercise. These figures are adapted from Foundations of Nutrition, sixth edition, by Taylor and Pye, MacMillan Publishers.

In applying the figures you can make appropriate adjustment for your own weight. Increase or decrease the calories used per minute by the percentage you vary from the 130 or 160 pounds given in the table. For example: A person weighing 200 pounds will burn 25 per cent more calories. Walking at the rate of 3 miles per hour, he will burn 4.6 calories per minute.

Clip and save the chart if you wish to have it for reference.

Union Fight Brings Huge Traffic Jam

A massive traffic jam blocked the Ohio River Blvd. and the main approaches to Ambridge this morning when a number of cars were placed to block the roads as a result of a labor dispute at the A. M. Byers Co.

Pennsylvania state police, Beaver County officers and police from throughout the area struggled to get traffic moving on the four-lane roadway, which was clogged after distributor parts were reported removed from some autos.

A jurisdictional dispute between unions in the firm apparently led to the incident around 5:30 a.m.

Traffic continued to jam up on the boulevard and on Duss Ave. in Ambridge and it was only later in the morning that the boulevard and one lane of Duss Ave. were opened.

Fire Prevention Week Proclaimed By Mayor

Mayor George E. Willshaw today issued a proclamation setting aside the period beginning Sunday for the annual East Liverpool observance of National Fire Prevention Week.

The mayor's proclamation declared that "great social and economic loss" results each year from destruction of homes, business enterprises, industries and natural resource. He called upon all citizens to "take part in a coordinated effort to make our city a safer place in which to live and work."

The local observance is sponsored by the safety committee of the Chamber of Commerce, with the aid of all area fire departments.

In addition to maintenance of city rolling stock, the buildings will be used for storage of other equipment and supplies.

Hearings Due Oct. 18 For City Tax Charges

Municipal Court hearings have been set Tuesday, Oct. 18, for 28 persons named in affidavits filed Thursday by Tax Commissioner D. G. Wilkinson, accusing them of violation of the city income tax ordinance.

Rusk's Peace Talk Efforts Prove Futile

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk apparently is returning empty handed to Washington after trying in three days of talks with Communist and neutralist diplomats to get hopeful signs of peace talks on Viet Nam.

If the Communist or nonaligned nations have had any hint from North Viet Nam that it is prepared to ease its conditions for negotiations, there is no sign that they passed the information on to Rusk.

It became clear that the Americans were making little headway after the secretary of state talked Thursday with Foreign Ministers Vaclad David of Czechoslovakia and Janos Pete of Hungary.

The Americans apparently had centered their hopes on David, whose Premier Joze Lenart conerred recently in Hanoi with North Vietnamese President Ho Chi Minh.

Asked about Lenart's mission to North Viet Nam, David told newsmen he had no message to relay to Rusk.

The Hungarian foreign minister told newsmen only that he and Rusk had touched on Viet Nam along with other world problems.

Murder-Suicide Seen In Deaths Of Chemist, Wife

In good condition in Riverside Hospital was 18-year-old Leonard Love, who told officers his father shot at him four times.

The wounded youth drove several miles from the family home in suburban Gahanna to the home of a brother, Maynard, in Columbus to report the tragedy.

Jury

Galloway and his wife Karen were in the Slovak Club at Aliquippa, Pa., from 8:30 p.m. Jan. 2 until about 2:45 a.m. Jan. 3 when she closed the club. Mrs. Rhodes and her husband managed the bar room.

She said she can remember the date and Galloway being there because it was the last day she worked at the club. Mrs. Rhodes said she knew Galloway through his sister, Mrs. Shirley Icenhour of Aliquippa. Galloway had not been at the club since the summer of 1965, Mrs. Rhodes said. "He introduced himself as Shirley's brother. I didn't recognize him because he had a goatee."

Galloway was not arrested until Mother's Day, May 8, when he stopped at the 12th St. Market about 8:30 p.m. to buy a pack of cigarettes.

Mrs. Peterson called police after he left to report the man who robbed her in January had just left the store. Policeman Charles Amato stopped the defendant before he got out of town.

Galloway said he was going home by way of Wheeling after failing to find his father and grandmother at home in East Liverpool. He said he visited his mother earlier in the day at Freedom, Pa.

Police found a loaded .22-caliber rifle, binoculars and two walkie - talkies on the back seat of Galloway's car. He testified he used the equipment for hunting. He said the loaded gun was on the seat because he had been hunting wild turkeys the evening before and neglected to put it away.

When Galloway, during cross-examination, mentioned he had been in jail previously, Assistant Prosecutor James D. Primm Jr. got him to admit he had been in prison on more than one occasion.

"What's the total time you have been in jail?" Primm asked.

"I can't remember."

"Well, give us your best estimate, give or take a year."

Galloway was silent for three or four seconds before answering, "Four years." The nature of the offenses was not brought out.

Closing arguments began at 9 a.m. today.

The state had one rebuttal witness — the assistant prosecutor. Primm said he talked to Galloway May 9 at the County Jail and the defendant told him he was "completely innocent and hadn't been in Wellsville that day."

Primm said Galloway told him he and his wife and baby were staying in Philippi, W. Va., with a family named Malcolm, that they went there about Dec. 28 or 29 and stayed for two or three weeks.

"I placed a telephone call to the Malcolm residence and let Galloway do the talking while I listened," Primm testified. "I could tell plainly they did not know anything about him being there."

Palestine Man Faces Assault Case Hearing

Burson was released on $1,000 bond.

New Date Slated In Property Case

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today granted a continuance until Oct. 17 in a case in which Eric Young of 604 College St. is accused of failure to comply with an order of a deputy state fire marshal requiring him to raze or repair a structure which he owns at E. 6th St. and Thompson Ave.

The judge said the defendant requested the continuance, asserting that repairs are under way on the property but they have been delayed by inadvertent mishaps to some of the workers and other causes. Young pleaded not guilty on the charge Sept. 6 and received a continuance until today. At that time, he said repairs were under way.

Fire Chief Alfred VanDyne filed the affidavit, alleging that Young "being the owner of property at 6th St. and Thompson Ave. wilfully failed, neglected and refused to comply with an order of a deputy state fire marshal. . . ."

Truck Hits Burro Of Lisbon Family

A burro owned by a Lisbon area family was injured and had to be destroyed after it was struck by a truck on Route 164 early today, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported.

The truck driven by Ronald J. May, 27, of 320 Maple St., Lisbon, was headed south when it hit the burro walking on the south lane about 1.4 miles north of Lisbon at 12:05 a. m.

The animal, owned by Jerry Rose of Lisbon R. D. 5, apparently had broken a rope and wandered onto the road. The family, which obtained the animal only a few days ago, said it had to be destroyed by a veterinarian.

The patrol also reported on a mishap on Route 30 just north of the city limits Wednesday afternoon in which two vehicles collided as the drivers attempted to pass a coal truck.

Officers said a pickup truck operated by Nancy Lee Timmons, 23, of Chester collided with a 1963 sedan operated by Shirley Rose Armstrong, 20, of Warren. Damage was slight, officers said.

Though technology did not advance rapidly in the middle ages, substantial progress was made. In the 12th century, the windmill, wheelbarrow, window glass, candle, and paved road were invented. Spectacles and the ship's rudder appeared in the 13th; the grandfather clock was devised in the 14th.

Coveted Eagle Award Given Glenmoor Scout

The coveted Eagle award was presented a Glenmoor youth during a Boy Scout Court of Honor Thursday night.

Joseph Arcuragi Jr., 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Arcuragi of Glenmoor, was accorded the recognition for his activities since entering the Scouting program in 1962.

The East Liverpool High School junior unofficially completed the Eagle requirements six months ago. He has 25 merit badges and found "pioneering" the most difficult in his case. He constructed a bridge 30 feet long and three feet high over a creek near Leesville to qualify for the badge.

Troop 42 to which he belongs is a comparatively new one and Joe is the first to achieve Eagle status in the troop, which meets at the American Legion post in Glenmoor. Scoutmasters are Jack Turner and Don Poole.

Joe is a swimming and football enthusiast and is a hurdler.

JOSEPH ARCURAGI

Commissioners Get Ruling On Weight Limits For Roads

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners received a letter Thursday from Prosecuting Atty. J. Warren Bettis stating they have authority "under certain conditions" to prescribe weight limits on roads other than state highways.

Bettis said the commissioners may establish such reductions as the condition of the road or highway justifies, but in no case shall the reduction be more than 50 per cent.

Commissioners asked for the prosecutor's opinion after receiving a letter last month from Allen G. Chamberlin, Fairfield Township trustee.

He mentioned joint efforts of the county and township in paving Kelley Park Rd. east of Leetonia between Routes 164 and 344.

"We feel there has been extra heavy truck traffic on this township road due to the low underpass at the edge (Route 164) of Columbiana, "Chamberlin wrote. "Is it possible for the county commissioners to put a load limit on this road or on the bridge?"

Commissioners yesterday entered into a contract with the Columbus Blank Book Co. to furnish tax return blanks and envelopes for the county auditor in 1967.

The firm's bid was $3,090. The only other proposal was $3,350 from the Heer Printing Co. at Columbus.

Commissioners paid Robert J. Bloor of Salem R.D. 2 $50 for two lambs killed and two ewes mauled by stray dogs.

They also employed Mrs. Faye Hillberry of Lisbon R.D. 3 as a child welfare aid to drive bus for the retarded children's school. She began work Oct. 1, succeeding Melvin Freeze, who resigned. She will receive $165 a month.

Walter McCoy and Joseph Reed, Soldiers Relief Commission, service officers, were allowed $82 to attend a service officers' school Oct. 20-21 at Columbus. Ronald Mackell, a member of the commission, was allowed $64.50 to attend an executive committee meeting of the state SRC association today through Sunday at Coshocton.

Robert and Gladys Boyce, superintendent and matron of the County Home, were allowed $200 to attend a training session on new welfare material Oct. 30-Nov. 2 at Columbus.

Council Ok's Dump Project For Ohioville

Eli Basta of the Old Smiths Ferry Rd. received permission to file an application with the Pennsylvania Health Department to create a landfill dump on his property when Ohioville Council met Thursday night.

Basta said residents of Ohioville and other areas could use the dump for a "small fee."

Following approval by the department of health, Basta will present a formal request with the borough planning commission for final authorization.

Acreage plans were approved, including those for Richard Martell for Ridgemont Dr., the Grant Reed heirs for TV Tower Rd., Michael Hornick for Ridgemont Dr., Roy Burton for Fairview-Blackhawk Rd., Salem Presbyterian Church for Salem Church Rd., and Charles Graham for Tuscarawas Rd.

Eli Sainovich was named to the Planning and Zoning Commission, filling a vacancy created with the resignation of Louis Poff in January. The term will expire in 1970.

Other commission members are John Verzella, James Britton, Daniel Borato and Jess Singleton.

George Gailey Jr., chairman of the road committee, said a salt stabilization test made recently on a one-half mile section of Willowbrook Dr. has received the approval of all Councilmen. He said a seal coat will be applied soon, and the results of the testing will determine whether all borough roads will be resurfaced in the same manner.

Councilman Richard Rice, chairman of the budget committee, said the committee will meet in a few weeks to draft the 1967 budget.

Mayor Elmer R. Gifford reported 27 complaints investigated and 14 arrests made in September, including one for disorderly conduct and one for illegal dumping of garbage. The rest were for traffic violations.

General fund bills totaling $2,401 were paid.

F. Dawson, president, was in charge. The next meeting will be Nov. 3.

A membership drive is under way. Those wishing to join the department are asked to contact Mills or any other officer.

Mills announced that anyone wishing to rent the fire hall for banquets, receptions or meetings should contact George Hamilton or another trustee.

A meeting of officers will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. when plans for the homecoming celebration next June will be discussed.

New Date Slated In Property Case

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today granted a continuance until Oct. 17 in a case in which Eric Young of 604 College St. is accused of failure to comply with an order of a deputy state fire marshal requiring him to raze or repair a structure which he owns at E. 6th St. and Thompson Ave.

The judge said the defendant requested the continuance, asserting that repairs are under way on the property but they have been delayed by inadvertent mishaps to some of the workers and other causes. Young pleaded not guilty on the charge Sept. 6 and received a continuance until today. At that time, he said repairs were under way.

Fire Chief Alfred VanDyne filed the affidavit, alleging that Young "being the owner of property at 6th St. and Thompson Ave. wilfully failed, neglected and refused to comply with an order of a deputy state fire marshal. . . ."

Truck Hits Burro Of Lisbon Family

A burro owned by a Lisbon area family was injured and had to be destroyed after it was struck by a truck on Route 164 early today, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported.

The truck driven by Ronald J. May, 27, of 320 Maple St., Lisbon, was headed south when it hit the burro walking on the south lane about 1.4 miles north of Lisbon at 12:05 a. m.

The animal, owned by Jerry Rose of Lisbon R. D. 5, apparently had broken a rope and wandered onto the road. The family, which obtained the animal only a few days ago, said it had to be destroyed by a veterinarian.

The patrol also reported on a mishap on Route 30 just north of the city limits Wednesday afternoon in which two vehicles collided as the drivers attempted to pass a coal truck.

Officers said a pickup truck operated by Nancy Lee Timmons, 23, of Chester collided with a 1963 sedan operated by Shirley Rose Armstrong, 20, of Warren. Damage was slight, officers said.

Though technology did not advance rapidly in the middle ages, substantial progress was made. In the 12th century, the windmill, wheelbarrow, window glass, candle, and paved road were invented. Spectacles and the ship's rudder appeared in the 13th; the grandfather clock was devised in the 14th.

Coveted Eagle Award Given Glenmoor Scout

The coveted Eagle award was presented a Glenmoor youth during a Boy Scout Court of Honor Thursday night.

Joseph Arcuragi Jr., 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Arcuragi of Glenmoor, was accorded the recognition for his activities since entering the Scouting program in 1962.

The East Liverpool High School junior unofficially completed the Eagle requirements six months ago. He has 25 merit badges and found "pioneering" the most difficult in his case. He constructed a bridge 30 feet long and three feet high over a creek near Leesville to qualify for the badge.

Troop 42 to which he belongs is a comparatively new one and Joe is the first to achieve Eagle status in the troop, which meets at the American Legion post in Glenmoor. Scoutmasters are Jack Turner and Don Poole.

Joe is a swimming and football enthusiast and is a hurdler.

Out Of The Air

By JOHN HORN

More Television Drama

The National Educational Television (NET) network, which produces programs for 109 stations across the country, this week unveils its most ambitious project to date: "NET Playhouse," a 52-week schedule of drama, feature films, and stage productions.

The premiere of 40 programs (and 12 repeats) is "Ten Blocks On the Camino Real," the original Tennessee Williams one-actor. Lotte Lenya, Martin Sheen, and Patricia Neway are in it.

"OUR COMPETITION from the commercial networks will be spotty," said Curtis W. Davis, NET's cultural programming director. "'Stage 67' has only 26 programs, and not all drama. Ours is the only weekly drama throughout the year."

Davis said that long before "Death of a Salesman" last spring once again convinced CBS and the other commercial networks of the cultural value of drama, NET had seen the void in programming and decided to fill it. Plans for "NET Playhouse" were laid the summer of 1965.

"We're glad there's a drama revival," Davis said. "Now we're not by ourselves. If it's the result of anything NET did, we're pleased."

THE MOVE into drama by NET was delayed by internal personnel shifts and the late signing of its first contract with the actors union, AFTRA, in the fall of 1964.

Production budgets, though large for NET, are still on the frugal side. "Camino Real" cost $95,000. The first eight productions came to half a million. A typical commercial - television production costs more than that.

Subsequent productions: Maxwell Anderson's "The Star Wagon," Arthur Miller's adaptation of Ibsen's "An Enemy of the People," Thornton Wilder's "Infancy and Childhoos" and Laurence Housman's "Victoria Regina."

Movies will include Antonioni's "l'Avventura" and Roman Polanski's "Knife in the Water," much-acclaimed foreign films.

HERE'S ONE for modern psychologists: Randy Kirby, 23-year-old costar of "The Girl from U.N.C.L.E." doesn't hate his father. He likes him.

In a way, that's strange. For his dad never was one to spare the rod. Randy still remembers the strapping he got when at 13 he thought he'd try liquor. And the punitive workout early next morning mowing the lawn at home in Bronxville, N. Y., while suffering his first hangover.

Dad's so rough, Randy claims, that brother Dennis, 17, had to give up the idea of growing his hair Beatle length when father put his big foot down.

-:-

"WHEN THOR, the thunder god, speaks at home, we listen," Randy says with feeling. "And don't believe that baloney that lightning doesn't strike the same place twice!"

With that Randy smiled.

"Besides, Dad is still 6 feet 4½ — a half inch taller than Abraham Lincoln. We're only 6 feet."

With the style, the resemblance was plain. The stern father was none other than likeable Durward Kirby, for 27 years Garry Moore's buddy and for 16 years Garry Moore's droll television sidekick.

Randy Kirby was passing through town the other day — he stays with his parents when he does — between his annual two-week stint in the Army reserve and his next assignment on the new "U.N.C.L.E." series.

-:-

FULL OF show business and acting shticks — he has been a professional since high school — Randy also had only affection for his father.

"I've been lucky," the son says. "In the first place, I was lucky to be born Durward Kirby's son. He's all a father should be. He's there when you need him."

Life for Randy has been pretty much of a show-biz ball. Growing up, he met and was influenced by the likes of Jonathan Winters (whom Randy imitates to perfection). The Jack Paars were neighbors. Professionally he has gone from the short-lived "Me and Thee" with the senior Kirby, to the Broadway musical "Mame" and to his TV series.

He has done many commercials — "I'm the mother's son type" — and currently can be seen in the commercial as the boy whose sister catches him kissing his girl.

Big head? Not likely.

"Dad reminds me that some day the whole bubble will burst —or has that potential. When that happens, I hope I have learned a lot more than luck."

Union Asks Workers To Return To Jobs

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP)—A United Auto Workers leader says the union has urged members of Local 971 to return to work at the Bendix-Westinghouse Automotive Air Brake Division plant, which was hit by a walkout Thursday night.

C. Franklin Carr, an international representative for the union, said the work stoppage apparently was caused by unsettled grievances. The plant was hit by a three-day walkout in August.

Mexico Bars Supplies Intended For Indians

EL PASO, Tex. (AP)—A Mexican official has told Lafayette, La., residents that 10 boxcars of supplies they donated for the Tarahumara Indians will not be allowed in Mexico and should be disposed of elsewhere.

Roberto S. Urrea, consul-general of Mexico at El Paso, said Thursday that his government's decision is final. He said proper importation requirements were not met and the pride of the Mexican people was damaged by publicity of the controversy.

The food, medical supplies and farm equipment in the boxcars were donated after reports that the Tarahumaras, who live in the northern Mexico state of Chihuahua, were starving. The Mexican government denied this, said it could take care of its own citizens and refused to allow the train to cross the border.

Urrea's announcement left the fate of the goods uncertain.

MELANISM

Q. I understand that women who take birth control pills develop brown blotches on the face. I developed such blotches after my fourth child. I have never taken "pills". What causes this and what can be done?

A. Melanism (abnormal deposition of dark pigment [melanin] in tissues) does occur in some women during pregnancy. Why it occurs in unknown. The blotches may or may not fade after delivery. If they remain, there is not much to be done but to cover the areas with a masking cosmetic. Birth control pills create a state of "false pregnancy" and may provoke changes such as skin discoloration, sometimes associated with pregnancy.

CROSSED EYES

Q. Is is normal for babies' eyes to cross?

A. Perhaps not normal but it frequent happens in very young babies. After a few months the eyes team-up in the "eyes front" position. If the eyes cross after six months, see your doctor. A crosseyed child has little or no chance of "outgrowing" the condition.

More Television Drama

The National Educational Television (NET) network, which produces programs for 109 stations across the country, this week unveils its most ambitious project to date: "NET Playhouse," a 52-week schedule of drama, feature films, and stage productions.

The premiere of 40 programs (and 12 repeats) is "Ten Blocks On the Camino Real," the original Tennessee Williams one-actor. Lotte Lenya, Martin Sheen, and Patricia Neway are in it.

-:-

"OUR COMPETITION from the commercial networks will be spotty," said Curtis W. Davis, NET's cultural programming director. "'Stage 67' has only 26 programs, and not all drama. Ours is the only weekly drama throughout the year."

Davis said that long before "Death of a Salesman" last spring once again convinced CBS and the other commercial networks of the cultural value of drama, NET had seen the void in programming and decided to fill it. Plans for "NET Playhouse" were laid the summer of 1965.

"We're glad there's a drama revival," Davis said. "Now we're not by ourselves. If it's the result of anything NET did, we're pleased."

THE MOVE into drama by NET was delayed by internal personnel shifts and the late signing of its first contract with the actors union, AFTRA, in the fall of 1964.

Production budgets, though large for NET, are still on the frugal side. "Camino Real" cost $95,000. The first eight productions came to half a million. A typical commercial - television production costs more than that.

Subsequent productions: Maxwell Anderson's "The Star Wagon," Arthur Miller's adaptation of Ibsen's "An Enemy of the People," Thornton Wilder's "Infancy and Childhoos" and Laurence Housman's "Victoria Regina."

Movies will include Antonioni's "l'Avventura" and Roman Polanski's "Knife in the Water," much-acclaimed foreign films.

HERE'S ONE for modern psychologists: Randy Kirby, 23-year-old costar of "The Girl from U.N.C.L.E." doesn't hate his father. He likes him.

In a way, that's strange. For his dad never was one to spare the rod. Randy still remembers the strapping he got when at 13 he thought he'd try liquor. And the punitive workout early next morning mowing the lawn at home in Bronxville, N. Y., while suffering his first hangover.

Dad's so rough, Randy claims, that brother Dennis, 17, had to give up the idea of growing his hair Beatle length when father put his big foot down.

-:-

"WHEN THOR, the thunder god, speaks at home, we listen," Randy says with feeling. "And don't believe that baloney that lightning doesn't strike the same place twice!"

With that Randy smiled.

"Besides, Dad is still 6 feet 4½ — a half inch taller than Abraham Lincoln. We're only 6 feet."

With the style, the resemblance was plain. The stern father was none other than likeable Durward Kirby, for 27 years Garry Moore's buddy and for 16 years Garry Moore's droll television sidekick.

Randy Kirby was passing through town the other day — he stays with his parents when he does — between his annual two-week stint in the Army reserve and his next assignment on the new "U.N.C.L.E." series.

-:-

FULL OF show business and acting shticks — he has been a professional since high school — Randy also had only affection for his father.

"I've been lucky," the son says. "In the first place, I was lucky to be born Durward Kirby's son. He's all a father should be. He's there when you need him."

Life for Randy has been pretty much of a show-biz ball. Growing up, he met and was influenced by the likes of Jonathan Winters (whom Randy imitates to perfection). The Jack Paars were neighbors. Professionally he has gone from the short-lived "Me and Thee" with the senior Kirby, to the Broadway musical "Mame" and to his TV series.

He has done many commercials — "I'm the mother's son type" — and currently can be seen in the commercial as the boy whose sister catches him kissing his girl.

Big head? Not likely.

"Dad reminds me that some day the whole bubble will burst —or has that potential. When that happens, I hope I have learned a lot more than luck."

Union Asks Workers To Return To Jobs

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP)—A United Auto Workers leader says the union has urged members of Local 971 to return to work at the Bendix-Westinghouse Automotive Air Brake Division plant, which was hit by a walkout Thursday night.

C. Franklin Carr, an international representative for the union, said the work stoppage apparently was caused by unsettled grievances. The plant was hit by a three-day walkout in August.

Mexico Bars Supplies Intended For Indians

EL PASO, Tex. (AP)—A Mexican official has told Lafayette, La., residents that 10 boxcars of supplies they donated for the Tarahumara Indians will not be allowed in Mexico and should be disposed of elsewhere.

Roberto S. Urrea, consul-general of Mexico at El Paso, said Thursday that his government's decision is final. He said proper importation requirements were not met and the pride of the Mexican people was damaged by publicity of the controversy.

The food, medical supplies and farm equipment in the boxcars were donated after reports that the Tarahumaras, who live in the northern Mexico state of Chihuahua, were starving. The Mexican government denied this, said it could take care of its own citizens and refused to allow the train to cross the border.

Urrea's announcement left the fate of the goods uncertain.

Q. I understand that women who take birth control pills develop brown blotches on the face. I developed such blotches after my fourth child. I have never taken "pills". What causes this and what can be done?

A. Melanism (abnormal deposition of dark pigment [melanin] in tissues) does occur in some women during pregnancy. Why it occurs in unknown. The blotches may or may not fade after delivery. If they remain, there is not much to be done but to cover the areas with a masking cosmetic. Birth control pills create a state of "false pregnancy" and may provoke changes such as skin discoloration, sometimes associated with pregnancy.

CROSSED EYES

Q. Is is normal for babies' eyes to cross?

A. Perhaps not normal but it frequent happens in very young babies. After a few months the eyes team-up in the "eyes front" position. If the eyes cross after six months, see your doctor. A crosseyed child has little or no chance of "outgrowing" the condition.

THE COACH'S CORNER

by–
Bob McNea

It was a great thrill for a squad and coaching staff to win over an undefeated team, but to be the only one to score on them is a real honor. Massillon in a pre-season scrimmage, Columbus East, Akron South, and Weirton Madonna, in regular season play could not score on Steubenville Central. When the "Potters" drove more than half the field to score, the tremendous cheer that went out from the crowd made us feel like we were at home.

The coaches and players were very happy and encouraged by the support of our loyal fans both during the game and at half time. It makes a team try a little harder to know of this fine support and interest of so many people. The lines of students and fans that the team ran through to get on the field in the second half helped to further dedicate the team in this big upset victory. Central, a two touchdown favorite, had to walk off the field a loser at home to East Liverpool for the first time since 1958 when Bob Mackall led the "Potters" to a 6-2 win. Rich Pont, Central Coach, said in talking to the press after the game, "This is the hardest hitting East Liverpool team we have faced since I have been at Central." I can assure our fans that it was on our side of the field also.

The muddy field, the slippery grass, and the rainy night were factors in the game. How much so, no one will ever know. We prefer a dry evening. We use much offense, deceptive ball handling, many formations, and numerous pitchouts which were handicapped by the conditions Saturday night. As all weather is football weather, the team must adjust right now, if possible, or lose.

Our timing in our backfield was far from sharp as Darryl Herring and Denny Smith could not practice all week due to knee injuries. It was a very pleasant surprise that they could even dress for the game, let alone start. I attribute this to the boys making every effort to follow our trainer Frank "Digger" Dawson's advice and the treatment they received by him every noon hour. It was obvious to most people that these boys did not play up to their usual brand of ball. We are hoping they will return to their old selves.

Akron East is a very fine football team. They have big strong linemen and the fastest backfield that ever set foot on Patterson Field. Their backs are not only fast but they are big also. They are the "Champions of Akron." This rubber city team has the coaches much more worried than Central did. If the East backs break into the open all fans better have extra clothing on or they might catch cold by the breeze.

Series Shifts To Baltimore With LA's Back To Wall

Palmer Hurls 6-0 Shutout; 6 Errors Help Orioles

By MIKE RATHET

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Los Angeles Dodgers, who have their backs to the wall because of the sun in their eyes, flew into Baltimore today after what Manager Walt Alston termed the worst two-day World Series performance during his 3-year reign.

And Alston had another 24 hours to think about it on an off-day before the Series resumes Saturday with Claude Osteen scheduled to pitch against Baltimore's Wally Bunker.

Alston however, didn't have to dig down in his memory to classify the Dodgers' performance in dropping 5-2 and 6-0 decisions to the Orioles while making just seven hits and committing six errors.

"We've been two down before but we didn't look this bad," Alston said. "I never saw us look so bad two days in a row."

If the Dodgers looked bad Wednesday in collecting only one hit off Moe Drabowsky in 6 2-3 innings of relief pitching, they looked worse when the returns were all in on Thursday's game.

The Dodgers collected only four hits as Jim Palmer became the youngest pitcher in Series history to post a shutout—and they collected a record-tying six errors.

Willie Davis was the No. 1 culprit, committing errors in such rapid succession during the fifth inning that he not only surpassed the one-inning individual record with three but also tied the team record for an inning.

"I just lost them in the sun," Davis explained after the game. "There's nothing you can do about a case like that. I got a quick peek at the ball the second time. I made a stab at it but it was no use.

"If I could see the ball, you know I'm gonna catch it."

Paul Blair, the Orioles center fielder, also said he had difficulty picking up the ball and explained:

"The screen in back of home plate gives off a funny kind of golden glare, and it's hard to pick up the ball. When a fly ball gets in the sun, there's nothing you can do about it but hope it falls in the glove."

The golden glare proved the complete undoing of the Dodgers' golden left arm—Sandy Koufax. Koufax and Palmer, the Orioles' 20-year-old right-hander, were locked in a scoreless duel when the sun fell in on the Dodgers in the fifth inning.

Boog Powell started things with an opposite field single, only the second hit off Koufax, and then Dave Johnson fouled out. It hardly seemed time to do anything more than stifle a yawn when Blair lofted a fly to center.

Davis cruised under the ball, then lost it in the sun. He made a grab around his knees, but couldn't hold the ball and it fell for a two-base error.

Andy Etchebarren came up and hit the fourth pitch to him into short center. Davis chugged in again but motioned his arms for help as he again lost the ball for another error, then picked it up and compounded his mistake by throwing wild to third.

Luis Aparicio's double drove Etchebarren home with a third run—and it was all over but the cheering which greeted Davis when he returned to the outfield and caught a ball he and Lou Johnson were warming up with.

Palmer, meanwhile, was putting his name in the record book, allowing only one Dodger to reach third base in a performance as surprising as the Dodgers' defensive collapsed since he had completed only two of his last 20 regular-season games.

Palmer, who had pancakes for breakfast and the Dodgers for lunch, said he got the job done mostly with two pitches.

"I had a good fast ball and a good curve," he said, "and that's what we're supposed to pitch to them."

First Year Coaches Winning . . .

Surprising so far in the 1966 local football season is that the district's only undefeated teams—Midland and Stanton Local—are coached by two men who are in their first season as a head coach.

Glenn Trout took over at Stanton after Howard Gilger, who had winning seasons there, left to accept a coaching position elsewhere. Trout's team has been scored upon only once in four games.

At Midland, Joe Hamilton, who wasn't hired until about one week before practice got under way, has seen his team win four in a row. His only previous experience was serving as an assistant at Beaver.

Thornton Went West . . .

HORACE GREELEY was credited with the statement "go west young man." Wellsville's Chris Thornton went West and wound up with a scholarship at Northern Arizona University at Flagstaff, Ariz.

A top high school gridder who rewrote the scoring and rushing records at Wellsville, Chris is the only freshman to make the varsity squad.

He didn't start in Northern Arizona's opening loss, but was impressive when used in a 14-12 win over Fresno on Sept. 24.

In the opening game which NAS lost, Thornton carried the ball twice, picking up a total of 39 yards.

His showing against Fresno earned him a starting tailback berth last Saturday as Northern Arizona edged Idaho State, 14-13.

In the victory over Fresno, Chris broke loose for a 54-yard touchdown run, but the TD was nullified by a penalty.

If you are wondering how Thornton wound up in Arizona, Head Coach Andy MacDonald explains: "One of my best friends is a line coach at Michigan State. State was after Thornton, but he did not qualify for enrollment there, so the coach called me. He was anxious to get the boy away from other schools in the Big 10, as well as Nebraska.

"We contacted Thornton, then I let Dalton Kimble (another NAV player) talk to Thornton and he gave him a real sales pitch. We got him on a train. And since Thornton's father is a railroad man, we managed to arrange free passage to Flagstaff."

Northern Arizona is described as a school with an ambitious and expanding football program, but still struggling to get out of the collegiate minor leagues.

Ex-Stanton Gridders At College . . .

THE FORMER all-state tackle from Stanton Local Larry Spires, is one of the most promising freshmen linemen at Ohio University, according to his coach, "Bucky" Wagner. Spires is starting at tackle. He is 6-1 and is currently playing at 212 pounds.

His brother Don Spires is a senior at Ohio U. and a member of the varsity basketball squad. Don was a regular towards the end of last season.

★ ★ ★

ANOTHER ex-Stanton gridder, Doug Hamilton, is doing the punting for Salem (W. Va.) College, and doing quite well. He is averaging 42 yards per punt. Doug is a freshman.

Stars Played In Little League . . .

LOCAL Little Leaguers should be interested to know that many of the Dodgers and Orioles playing in the World Series got their start in Little League baseball.

Both clubs have players who participated in a Little League World Series in "Boog" Powell of Baltimore and Jim Barbieri of the Dodgers.

Other former Little Leaguers for the Orioles are Curt Blefary, Mark Belanger, Andy Etchebarren, Dave Johnson, Dave McNally and Jim Palmer.

From the Dodgers are Jim Campanis, John Kennedy, Joe Moeller, Claud Osteen, Wes Parker, Ron Perranoski, Bart Shirley, Jeff Torborg and Don Sutton.

Another Round Of Football . . .

OUR SELECTIONS of "mudders" on last week's football schedule found us left at the starting gate. We batted only .500 as the high school gridders were slowed by rain. Our score was six right and six wrong.

Only six games are on tap today, with a heavier than usual schedule Saturday night.

Starting today's activity is the afternoon game between South Side and Millvale at Millvale. We will take the improving South Side Rams to win this one.

Tonight it looks like Follansbee to roll over Oak Glen, which is on a three-game losing streak. Stanton gets our vote over Adena for the Raiders' fifth straight. In Tri-County action we like East Palestine to best Lisbon and Minerva over Leetonia. Southern is our pick here to upset Springfield of Mahoning County.

The East Liverpool-Akron East game rates a toss-up. The Potters must contain the speed of the Orientals. We are picking Akron East in a close one.

In other games Saturday, Weirton Madonna gets the nod over Wellsville, Midland is picked to extend its streak over Hopewell, Beaver Local to down rival United, Columbiana over Canfield and Avonworth to trip Western Beaver.

Potters Shooting For 3rd Straight

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Contest With Swift East Team Rated Tossup

The East Liverpool Potters reach the halfway point of the season seeking their fourth victory and third straight in a game rated as a tossup against a swift Akron East team which will appear at Patterson Field Saturday night.

Akron East is a new team on the Potters schedule this season and the two schools show only one previous meeting. The first and only game was in 1910 when the Orientals came out on top by a lopsided 45-0 score.

COACH Bob McNea has been working all week on a defense to stop the speed of the East squad which shows three backs who can run the 100 yard dash at 10 seconds and under.

Besides being fast, the Akron backs are big with Larry Ratcliffe at 190, and Dave Richards and Harvey Drone at 170 each. Ratcliffe is a step faster than the others and finished fifth in the finals of the 100 yard dash at the state meet last spring.

McNea pointed out "with their speed they can hurt you at any time, when one of their backs break loose he's gone."

WHILE problems are expected with East, McNea plans to make some moves in the Potter offensive backfield.

Bill Jones, a junior will probably start at fullback with Jim Musuraca, the regular fullback alternating with Dennis Smith at halfback.

McNea explained the move because "Smith has been somewhat hesitant in his running, by alternating him he may get back in stride and we want to use Jones more than we have."

The Potter coach also has taken certain precuations in case of injuries and has been running quarterback Mike McVay at fullback.

McVAY will open at quarterback Saturday with Darryl Herring ready to go at the other halfback spot.

McNea announced the quarterback Emery Brewer missed three days of practice this week because of flu.

THE TOP player awards for last week's victory over Steubenville Central, as voted by the Potter coaching staff, went to McVay as the offensive back of the week and Bill Carter, defensive back.

Bill Hopper won his second straight offensive lineman award and Gary (Buzz) Arrington was named the defensive lineman of the week.

The Akron team, considered one of the stronger clubs in the Rubber City, shows a 2-1 record losing on a sloppy field last Friday to Akron Garfield 14-8 after leading up until the final minutes.

East has defeated Akron St. Vincent and North for its two victories.

Oak Glenn Hosts Follansbee On Light 6-Game Local Schedule Today

This week's district schedule is split evenly over two days with six games on today's card and a half dozen Saturday.

An afternoon game which finds South Side at Millvale opened the 12-game card today with five contests under the lights tonight.

The only team in the immediate area at home tonight is Oak Glen which faces Follansbee and at the same time will be out to snap a three-game losing streak.

Follansbee brings a 2-2 record to Newell and will be seeking to avenge a loss to the Golden Bears last season. Kickoff is at 8 p.m. while the ticket office at Newell Memorial Field will be open at 5 p.m. Gates to the field open at 6.

Stanton Local, one of two undefeated district teams seeks its fifth in a row with Adena invading tonight. Coach Glenn Trout's team which clicking with enough offense has given up only one touchdown in four starts.

Southern Local will attempt to get back on the winning trail after three straight setbacks when Springfield Local of Mahoning County visits the Southern gridiron.

The Tri-County League games involving local teams finds Lisbon at East Palestine while Leetonia visits Minerva.

Saturday's schedule opens in the afternon with undefeated Midland meeting a dangerous Hopewell eleven at 1:30 on the Hopewell gridiron.

Hopewell has lost one game, tied another and won two but loom as a big hurdle for the Leopards who are looking towards a WPIAL title.

Another afternoon game finds Western Beaver at Avonworth for a 2 p.m. kickoff.

East Liverpool will entertain Akron East Saturday night while Wellsville visits Weirton Madonna. Beaver Local is at home to host a rival United while Columbiana visits Canfield.

Both Threaten But Fail To Score

East And West In 0-0 Tie

The annual meeting between East Junior High and Westgate ended in a hard fought 0-0 tie Thursday at Patterson Field.

Both teams threatened seriously once during the game and Westgate had two touchdowns called back due to penalties.

The deepest drive by East came early in the game when the Panthers moved to the Westgate 15 where the march ended.

Westgate had both touchdowns called back in the first half then with time running out in the game the Wildcats moved to the East seven. Westgate attempted a field goal from the seven but the ball fell short in the end zone and East took over on the 20 and ran out the clock.

Both teams had identical 2-1-1 records. East will play Thursday meeting Salem at the East Junior gridiron.

Knox, Pugh Pace Beaver Public To Lopsided Victory

Paul Knox scored three touchdowns and Jim Pugh accounted for two when the Beaver Public eighth grade team rolled to a 48-6 victory at United Wednesday.

Knox went 45 and 20 yards for two td's and took a pass from Fred Lucas for a 25 yard scoring play. Pugh scored on jaunts of 75 and 65 yards. Jack Moore added another touchdown by racing 55 yards with an intercepted pass.

B-W Tops In Offense

NEW YORK (AP) — Baldwin-Wallace of Ohio leads the nation's small colleges in total offense with 570 yards per game in its two starts, NCAA statistics showed today.

Beaver Local Frosh Notch 3rd Straight

Rick Merritt raced for touchdown runs of 50 and 5 yards to pace the unbeaten Beaver Local freshmen to a 20-8 victory over Columbiana Thursday.

Merritt gave the young Beavers a 6-0 halftime lead after going five yards to score in the first period. In the second half Bruce Diddle went over from the one and Merritt galloped 50 yards for his second TD. A Diddle-to-Scott Dubberly pass netted one conversion for Beaver.

Columbiana became the first team to score on the Beaver frosh with a touchdown in the last 30 seconds of the game.

Beaver Local owns a 3-0 record.

Series Shifts To Baltimore With LA's Back To Wall

Palmer Hurls 6-0 Shutout; 6 Errors Help Orioles

By MIKE RATHET

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Los Angeles Dodgers, who have their backs to the wall because of the sun in their eyes, flew into Baltimore today after what Manager Walt Alston termed the worst two-day World Series performance during his 3-year reign.

And Alston had another 24 hours to think about it on an off-day before the Series resumes Saturday with Claude Osteen scheduled to pitch against Baltimore's Wally Bunker.

Alston however, didn't have to dig down in his memory to classify the Dodgers' performance in dropping 5-2 and 6-0 decisions to the Orioles while making just seven hits and committing six errors.

"We've been two down before but we didn't look this bad," Alston said. "I never saw us look so bad two days in a row."

If the Dodgers looked bad Wednesday in collecting only one hit off Moe Drabowsky in 6 2-3 innings of relief pitching, they looked worse when the returns were all in on Thursday's game.

The Dodgers collected only four hits as Jim Palmer became the youngest pitcher in Series history to post a shutout—and they collected a record-tying six errors.

Willie Davis was the No. 1 culprit, committing errors in such rapid succession during the fifth inning that he not only surpassed the one-inning individual record with three but also tied the team record for an inning.

"I just lost them in the sun," Davis explained after the game. "There's nothing you can do about a case like that. I got a quick peek at the ball the second time. I made a stab at it but it was no use.

"If I could see the ball, you know I'm gonna catch it."

Paul Blair, the Orioles center fielder, also said he had difficulty picking up the ball and explained:

"The screen in back of home plate gives off a funny kind of golden glare, and it's hard to pick up the ball. When a fly ball gets in the sun, there's nothing you can do about it but hope it falls in the glove."

The golden glare proved the complete undoing of the Dodgers' golden left arm—Sandy Koufax. Koufax and Palmer, the Orioles' 20-year-old right-hander, were locked in a scoreless duel when the sun fell in on the Dodgers in the fifth inning.

Boog Powell started things with an opposite field single, only the second hit off Koufax, and then Dave Johnson fouled out. It hardly seemed time to do anything more than stifle a yawn when Blair lofted a fly to center.

Davis cruised under the ball, then lost it in the sun. He made a grab around his knees, but couldn't hold the ball and it fell for a two-base error.

Andy Etchebarren came up and hit the fourth pitch to him into short center. Davis chugged in again but motioned his arms for help as he again lost the ball for another error, then picked it up and compounded his mistake by throwing wild to third.

Luis Aparicio's double drove Etchebarren home with a third run—and it was all over but the cheering which greeted Davis when he returned to the outfield and caught a ball he and Lou Johnson were warming up with.

Palmer, meanwhile, was putting his name in the record book, allowing only one Dodger to reach third base in a performance as surprising as the Dodgers' defensive collapsed since he had completed only two of his last 20 regular-season games.

Palmer, who had pancakes for breakfast and the Dodgers for lunch, said he got the job done mostly with two pitches.

"I had a good fast ball and a good curve," he said, "and that's what we're supposed to pitch to them."

First Year Coaches Winning . . .

Surprising so far in the 1966 local football season is that the district's only undefeated teams—Midland and Stanton Local—are coached by two men who are in their first season as a head coach.

Glenn Trout took over at Stanton after Howard Gilger, who had winning seasons there, left to accept a coaching position elsewhere. Trout's team has been scored upon only once in four games.

At Midland, Joe Hamilton, who wasn't hired until about one week before practice got under way, has seen his team win four in a row. His only previous experience was serving as an assistant at Beaver.

Thornton Went West . . .

HORACE GREELEY was credited with the statement "go west young man." Wellsville's Chris Thornton went West and wound up with a scholarship at Northern Arizona University at Flagstaff, Ariz.

A top high school gridder who rewrote the scoring and rushing records at Wellsville, Chris is the only freshman to make the varsity squad.

He didn't start in Northern Arizona's opening loss, but was impressive when used in a 14-12 win over Fresno on Sept. 24.

In the opening game which NAS lost, Thornton carried the ball twice, picking up a total of 39 yards.

His showing against Fresno earned him a starting tailback berth last Saturday as Northern Arizona edged Idaho State, 14-13.

In the victory over Fresno, Chris broke loose for a 54-yard touchdown run, but the TD was nullified by a penalty.

If you are wondering how Thornton wound up in Arizona, Head Coach Andy MacDonald explains: "One of my best friends is a line coach at Michigan State. State was after Thornton, but he did not qualify for enrollment there, so the coach called me. He was anxious to get the boy away from other schools in the Big 10, as well as Nebraska.

"We contacted Thornton, then I let Dalton Kimble (another NAV player) talk to Thornton and he gave him a real sales pitch. We got him on a train. And since Thornton's father is a railroad man, we managed to arrange free passage to Flagstaff."

Northern Arizona is described as a school with an ambitious and expanding football program, but still struggling to get out of the collegiate minor leagues.

Ex-Stanton Gridders At College . . .

THE FORMER all-state tackle from Stanton Local Larry Spires, is one of the most promising freshmen linemen at Ohio University, according to his coach "Bucky" Wagner. Spires is starting at tackle. He is 6-1 and is currently playing at 212 pounds.

His brother Don Spires is a senior at Ohio U. and a member of the varsity basketball squad. Don was a regular towards the end of last season.

★ ★ ★

ANOTHER ex-Stanton gridder, Doug Hamilton, is doing the punting for Salem (W. Va.) College, and doing quite well. He is averaging 42 yards per punt. Doug is a freshman.

Stars Played In Little League . . .

LOCAL Little Leaguers should be interested to know that many of the Dodgers and Orioles playing in the World Series got their start in Little League baseball.

Both clubs have players who participated in a Little League World Series in "Boog" Powell of Baltimore and Jim Barbieri of the Dodgers.

McNea announced the quarterback Emery Brewer missed three days of practice this week because of flu.

THE TOP player awards for last week's victory over Steubenville Central, as voted by the Potter coaching staff, went to McVay as the offensive back of the week and Bill Carter, defensive back.

Bill Hopper won his second straight offensive lineman award and Gary (Buzz) Arrington was named the defensive lineman of the week.

Orioles Suddenly Find Pitching

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles, supposedly weak in pitching, arrived home with a commanding 2-0 World Series lead today after a pair of outstanding performances by virtual pitching unknowns.

"I thought we didn't have any pitchers," Manager Hank Bauer said with a wink after 20-year-old Jim Palmer blanked the Los Angeles Dodgers 6-0 Thursday on four hits.

In the Series opener Wednesday, the Dodgers made only three hits in a 5-2 loss. Reliever Moe Drabowsky allowed one hit over the final 6 2-3 innings, striking out 11 Dodgers.

Los Angeles wasn't expected to hit much anyway, but its pitching staff was supposed to be vastly superior to that of the Orioles — who accounted for only 23 complete games all season.

In Thursday's game, Dodger center fielder Willie Davis dropped consecutive fly balls by Paul Blair and Andy Etchebarren in the fifth and then overthrew third base while trying to compensate for his second miscue.

"I feel sorry for Davis, but I'm glad it happened," said Orioles center fielder Paul Blair. "We're glad we won."

"You can't fight the sun," Bauer said. "I feel sorry for him. I played in the sun field myself."

Blair said the screen in back of home plate in Dodger Stadium "gives off a funny kind of gold glare, and it's hard to pick up the ball. I didn't have any trouble . . . I was too scared."

The Orioles expressed confidence they would take the Series, but none would predict a four-game sweep.

Coach Billy Hunter, always confident, came the closest to flatly predicting the first World Series victory ever for Baltimore.

"I said before the Series started that we'd only make one trip to Los Angeles, and that we'd win in five games," Hunter said. "Now, I don't know who's going to win one for them."

3 Errors In One Inning Series Record For Davis

By BOB MYERS

BALTIMORE (AP) — Two down to the Baltimore Orioles, the Los Angeles Dodgers in general and outfielder Willie Davis in particular had at least one hope — a cloudy weekend.

Los Angeles, which brags about its sunshine, produced too much for the Dodgers in the second game of the World Series Thursday and with 20-year-old Jim Palmer hurling a four-hitter, it was 6-0 for Baltimore.

Willie Davis set a Series record when he was charged with three errors on two successive plays in the fifth inning — two dropped fly balls and a throwing error — which led to three unearned runs, more than enough for Palmer and the Orioles.

The 55,947 packed into Dodger Stadium, plus the national television audience, couldn't believe what they witnessed. The first error came on a routine fly off the bat of Paul Blair, the second on another by Andy Etchebarren.

"I just lost both of them in the sun," Willie Davis said as he willingly discussed the misplays after the game. "I touched 'em but I didn't see them. I did get a quick peak at the last second on the second one. I made a stab at it but it was no use.

"If I could see the ball, you know I'm gonna catch it."

Another gasp came the next inning when Frank Robinson lofted a fly to right center and it dropped untouched between Willie D. and right fielder Ron Fairly.

"Neither one of us called for it," said Davis.

Lou Johnson, who played in left field Thursday, called the sun "the toughest sun I've ever seen."

Wasn't it just as bright for the Oriole outfielders?

The answer is yes, but the Dodgers simply weren't hitting the ball that far very often off the brilliant youngster, Palmer.

"I know we were two down last year but we didn't look this bad. We're just not hitting the ball," Manager Walt Alston said. "If anything good came out of this, maybe it is that we got all this out of our system."

Orioles 1-3 Choice Now To Win Series

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — If the oddsmakers are correct, the Baltimore Orioles will continue their victorious ways and win the World Series from the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Oddsmakers quoted Baltimore a 1 to 3 favorite to win the Series Thursday after the Orioles blanked the Dodgers 6-0.

The odds are almost even for Saturday's third game at Baltimore.

3 Americans In Finals Of Match Event

By RONALD THOMSON

VIRGINIA WATER, England (AP) — Arnold Palmer and Gary Player — big rivals in golf and partners in television — were to meet today in a 36-hole semifinal of the World Match Play Tournament, and both contended they have been hitting the ball better than ever after a rest from the game.

In the other semifinal, Billy Casper, U.S. Open Champion, was paired against Jack Nicklaus, reigning British Open king.

Player, who has been resting on his farm in South Africa for the last two months, has always said that the Wentworth course suits his game. But in fact all these four star semifinalists — the biggest names in world golf — took the course apart in practice and in Thursday's first round.

Nicklaus, the 5-2 favorite, defeated Dave Thomas of Wales 6 and 5. Palmer overwhelmed Roberto de Vicezzo of Argentina 10 and 8.

"The partial rest I've had has done me a tremendous amount of good," Palmer said. "This has been the first time in six or eight months that I haven't felt any pain from my strained left shoulder."

Player squeezed out a 1-up victory over England's Neil Coles, the leading money winner on the British circuit this year.

Casper played tactiturn golf all the way against Peter Thomson of Australia in the opening round and won 3 and 2.

Jim Becomes Youngest To Pitch Series Shutout

By MURRAY CHASS

BALTIMORE (AP) — Max Palmer played only bit parts in Route 66 and Highway Patrol, but his son Jim played the starring role in the Saga of Chavez Ravine.

Palmer, the younger, pitched a four-hitter and became the youngest player ever to record a shutout in World Series play as the Baltimore Orioles whipped the Los Angeles Dodgers 6-0 Thursday and took a 2-0 lead before the teams moved to Baltimore.

In completely befuddling the Dodgers, Palmer threw another shock into a capacity crowd at Dodger Stadium in scenic Chavez Ravine.

Palmer, who will be 21 years old Oct. 15, at one time lived in Beverly Hills, which is only about 20 miles west of Chavez Ravine. His father was an actor then, playing small parts in such television productions as Route 66, Highway Patrol, Climax and Playhouse 90.

"Are you kidding me?" exclaimed Palmer, the handsome, 6-foot-3 Baltimore idol, when someone asked if he had any desire to be an actor.

"But I just did a pancake commercial, and if they saw that they'd never look at me."

He eats pancakes for breakfast every time he is scheduled to pitch, a practice Manager Hank Bauer might have his other pitchers adopt since Palmer was the winningest member on the staff with 15 victories this season.

After Lou Johnson's second inning double, the Dodgers got just three harmless singles. And the second inning was the only one in which they put more than one man on base. As soon as they did that, loading the bases, Palmer ended the inning by getting Sandy Koufax on a pop-up.

Palmer, who is in only his second year in the majors and third in professional ball, said:

"I had a good fast ball and a good curve," the Oriole explained. "And that's what we're supposed to pitch to them."

Browns, Colts, Green Bay Given Nod In NFL Battles

By JACK HAND

BALTIMORE (AP) — If the Orioles can beat Don Drysdale, can the Colts handle Gale Sayers?

This mixed-up weekend of conflict between pro football and the World Series catches a pro picker suspended in mid-air between Los Angeles and Baltimore, hoping he doesn't wind up with Sandy Koufax throwing passes for the Rams and Frank Robinson hitting the line for the Colts.

Four of the weekend games are to be played Saturday night and seven on Sunday. Let's take another try (all games Sunday unless otherwise indicated):

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Cleveland 27, Pittsburgh 21—(Saturday night) Frank Ryan will have to go to the bombs against Steelers, who do a good job on defense against rush.

Washington 24, Atlanta 14—Sonny Jurgensen gets his turn to work out on Falcons' defense, which has been had for 13 touchdowns. Jurgy and Bobby Mitchell on target new.

Baltimore 22, Chicago 17—Colts haven't played since they beat 49ers Sept. 25 and have had two weeks to get ready for the Bears.

Green Bay 24, San Francisco 10—Packers appear capable of throttling everybody's offense.

Los Angeles 17, Detroit 14—Two of toughest defenses in league. A Bruce Gossett field goal could win it for Rams. It should be a low-scoring struggle with win going to team getting breaks.

St. Louis 28, New York 14—Charley Johnson should have a field day with New York defense which has given up 20 touchdowns.

Dallas 31, Philadelphia 14—Cowboys riding high on passing of Don Meredith and running of Dan Reeves.

Minnesota has a bye.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Buffalo 28, Boston 21 (Saturday night—Bills have gained running punch with Bobby Burnett and Wray Carlton and Jack Kemp appears back on beam.

Kansas City 31, Denver 17 (Saturday night)—Len Dawson has thrown 12 TD passes and Broncs' defense leaky, despite upset 40-38 win over Houston last week.

New York 24, San Diego 21 (Saturday night)—A tight fit. Could go either way, especially with big home crowd rooting for Joe Namath and Co.

Oakland 28, Miami 7—Raiders long overdue to burst loose and the Dolphins come along just in time. Art Powell should have a big day against Miami secondary.

Houston has a bye.

Pro Football Leagues To Try Merger Again

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American and National Football Leagues will try again next Tuesday to persuade Congress to give legal sanction to their planned merger. But time may be running out.

If Congress fails to give legislative approval to the consolidation, NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle said Thursday he would reluctantly but strongly recommend to the presidents of the 24 teams involved to cancel their plans.

The House Antitrust Subcommittee met Thursday to consider a Senate-pssed bill exempting the merger from antitrust laws but accomplished little before the hearing was adjourned because of a House quorum call.

Chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., read a statement, however, which indicated he would not hurry the legislation through the House as the Senate did. The Senate passed the measure, without hearings, on a voice vote.

"The Antitrust Subcommittee intends to explore thoroughly the extent of antitrust immunity requested and the results that would flow from such immunity," said Celler, author of the laws the leagues want to circumvent.

Afterward, he rescheduled the hearings for next Tuesday.

With Congress attempting to adjourn by the middle of the month, swift action on the legislation is necessary. The judiciary Committee, which would receive the bill after subcommittee action, still has other important legislation before it and may not find time to handle the merger exemption before adjournment.

Rozelle and Milt Woodward, president of the AFL, were ready to testify Thursday but did not. Their statements, however, were released.

The NFL commissioner said threats of legal action by the Justice Department and private persons against the merger "make the plan extremely hazardous in the absence of congressional approval."

One private suit against the plan already has been filed.

Irish Rate 4-TD Pick Over Cadets

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Army, faced with the awesome task of containing Notre Dame's explosive atack this weekend isn't backing off by any means.

The Cadets, who've won three straight under new Coach Tom Cahill, travel to South Bend, Ind., Saturday to face the unbeaten Irish.

Notre Dame, keyed by the flashy sophomore battery of Terry Hanratty and Jim Seymour, rates as a four touchdown favorite. The third-ranked Irish have rolled past Purdue and Northwestern in their first two games.

Cahill and the Cadets recognize the power of this Notre Dame team but aren't awestruck by it.

"I've read about the odds," the Army coach said. "They don't scare us at all. We recognize whom we're meeting. But we think we can do the job ourselves."

In the only game matching Top Ten teams, eight-ranked Tennessee faces No. 9 Georgia Tech at Atlanta.

The game will be nationally televised (ABC-TV 4 p.m. EDT).

Dewey Warren, a flashy passer, holds the key for the Volunteers, who must stop the power running of Tech's Lenny Snow.

Top-ranked Michigan State battles arch-rival Michigan at East Lansing and the Spartans rate as two-touchdown favorites.

UCLA, No. 2, goes against Rice at Houston and Gary Beban and Co. are a three-touchdown choice.

In other major games, defending national champion Alabama, hoping to climb from its No. 4 berth, faces Clemson at Tuscaloosa and Arkansas, ranked fifth, risks its 24-game win string—the longest in college football—against Baylor and Terry Southall at Fayetteville.

Washington, which upset Ohio State last week, faces sixth-ranked Southern California, while No. 7 Nebraska meets Wisconsin. Florida, ranked 10th, faces Florida State.

In other major games around the country, Navy battles Syracuse and Princeton and Dartmouth, the Ivy League standouts, clash in the East; Purdue hosts Iowa and Ohio State visits Illinois in the Midwest; Mississippi faces Georgia and Duke takes on Maryland in the South; and Oklahoma tackles Texas and California hosts San Jose State in the Southwest and West.

Spanish Papers, Radio And TV Ignore Series

MADRID (AP)—As far as Spain is concerned the World Series might as well be played out of this world. There has been no reference in Spanish newspapers to the fall baseball classic in the United States. Radio and television stations also made no mention of the Series.

The major sports in Spain are soccer and bull fights. Most Spaniards don't know anything about baseball.

Orioles Suddenly Find Pitching

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles, supposedly weak in pitching, arrived home with a commanding 2-0 World Series lead today after a pair of outstanding performances by virtual pitching unknowns.

"I thought we didn't have any pitchers," Manager Hank Bauer said with a wink after 20-year-old Jim Palmer blanked the Los Angeles Dodgers 6-0 Thursday on four hits.

In the Series opener Wednesday, the Dodgers made only three hits in a 5-2 loss. Reliever Moe Drabowsky allowed one hit over the final 6 2-3 innings, striking out 11 Dodgers.

Los Angeles wasn't expected to hit much anyway, but its pitching staff was supposed to be vastly superior to that of the Orioles — who accounted for only 23 complete games all season.

In Thursday's game, Dodger center fielder Willie Davis dropped consecutive fly balls by Paul Blair and Andy Etchebarren in the fifth and then overthrew third base while trying to compensate for his second miscue.

"I feel sorry for Davis, but I'm glad it happened," said Oriole center fielder Paul Blair. "We're glad we won."

"You can't fight the sun," Bauer said. "I feel sorry for him. I played in the sun field myself."

Blair said the screen in back of home plate in Dodger Stadium "gives off a funny kind of gold glare, and it's hard to pick up the ball. I didn't have any trouble . . . I was too scared."

The Orioles expressed confidence they would take the Series, but none would predict a four-game sweep.

Coach Billy Hunter, always confident, came the closest to flatly predicting the first World Series victory ever for Baltimore.

"I said before the Series started that we'd only make one trip to Los Angeles, and that we'd win in five games," Hunter said. "Now, I don't know who's going to win one for them."

3 Errors In One Inning Series Record For Davis

By BOB MYERS

BALTIMORE (AP) — Two down to the Baltimore Orioles, the Los Angeles Dodgers in general and outfielder Willie Davis in particular had at least one hope — a cloudy weekend.

Los Angeles, which brags about its sunshine, produced too much for the Dodgers in the second game of the World Series Thursday and with 20-year-old Jim Palmer hurling a four-hitter, it was 6-0 for Baltimore.

Willie Davis set a Series record when he was charged with three errors on two successive plays in the fifth inning — two dropped fly balls and a throwing error — which led to three unearned runs, more than enough for Palmer and the Orioles.

The 55,947 packed into Dodger Stadium, plus the national television audience, couldn't believe what they witnessed. The first error came on a routine fly off the bat of Paul Blair, the second on another by Andy Etchebarren.

"I just lost both of them in the sun," Willie Davis said as he willingly discussed the misplays after the game. "I touched 'em but I didn't see them. I did get a quick peak at the last second on the second one. I made a stab at it but it was no use.

"If I could see the ball, you know I'm gonna catch it."

Another gasp came the next inning when Frank Robinson lofted a fly to right center and it dropped untouched between Willie D. and right fielder Ron Fairly.

"Neither one of us called for it," said Davis.

Lou Johnson, who played in left field Thursday, called the sun "the toughest sun I've ever seen."

Wasn't it just as bright for the Oriole outfielders?

The answer is yes, but the Dodgers simply weren't hitting the ball that far very often off the brilliant youngster, Palmer.

"I know we were two down last year but we didn't look this bad. We're just not hitting the ball," Manager Walt Alston said. "If anything good came out of this, maybe it is that we got all this out of our system."

Orioles 1-3 Choice Now To Win Series

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — If the oddsmakers are correct, the Baltimore Orioles will continue their victorious ways and win the World Series from the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Oddsmakers quoted Baltimore a 1 to 3 favorite to win the Series Thursday after the Orioles blanked the Dodgers 6-0.

The odds are almost even for Saturday's third game at Baltimore.

3 Americans In Finals Of Match Event

By RONALD THOMSON

VIRGINIA WATER, England (AP) — Arnold Palmer and Gary Player — big rivals in golf and partners in television — were to meet today in a 36-hole semifinal of the World Match Play Tournament, and both contended they have been hitting the ball better than ever after a rest from the game.

In the other semifinal, Billy Casper, U.S. Open Champion, was paired against Jack Nicklaus, reigning British Open king.

Player, who has been resting on his farm in South Africa for the last two months, has always said that the Wentworth course suits his game. But in fact all these four star semifinalists — the biggest names in world golf — took the course apart in practice and in Thursday's first round.

Nicklaus, the 5-2 favorite, defeated Dave Thomas of Wales 6 and 5. Palmer overwhelmed Roberto de Vicezzo of Argentina 10 and 8.

"The partial rest I've had has done me a tremendous amount of good," Palmer said. "This has been the first time in six or eight months that I haven't felt any pain from my strained left shoulder."

Player squeezed out a 1-up victory over England's Neil Coles, the leading money winner on the British circuit this year.

Casper played tacticurn golf all the way against Peter Thomson of Australia in the opening round and won 3 and 2.

Jim Becomes Youngest To Pitch Series Shutout

By MURRAY CHASS

BALTIMORE (AP) — Max Palmer played only bit parts in Route 66 and Highway Patrol, but his son Jim played the starring role in the Saga of Chavez Ravine.

Palmer, the younger, pitched a four-hitter and became the youngest player ever to record a shutout in World Series play as the Baltimore Orioles whipped the Los Angeles Dodgers 6-0 Thursday and took a 2-0 lead before the teams moved to Baltimore.

In completely befuddling the Dodgers, Palmer threw another shock into a capacity crowd at Dodger Stadium in scenic Chavez Ravine.

Palmer, who will be 21 years old Oct. 15, at one time lived in Beverly Hills, which is only about 20 miles west of Chavez Ravine. His father was an actor then, playing small parts in such television productions as Route 66, Highway Patrol, Climax and Playhouse 90.

"Are you kidding me?" exclaimed Palmer, the handsome, 6-foot-3 Baltimore idol, when someone asked if he had any desire to be an actor.

"But I just did a pancake commercial, and if they saw that they'd never look at me."

He eats pancakes for breakfast every time he is scheduled to pitch, a practice Manager Hank Bauer might have his other pitchers adopt since Palmer was the winningest member on the staff with 15 victories this season.

After Lou Johnson's second inning double, the Dodgers got just three harmless singles. And the second inning was the only one in which they put more than one man on base. As soon as they did that, loading the bases, Palmer ended the inning by getting Sandy Koufax on a pop-up.

Palmer, who is in only his second year in the majors and third in professional ball, said:

"I had a good fast ball and a good curve," the Oriole explained. "And that's what we're supposed to pitch to them."

Browns, Colts, Green Bay Given Nod In NFL Battles

By JACK HAND

BALTIMORE (AP) — If the Orioles can beat Don Drysdale, can the Colts handle Gale Sayers?

This mixed-up weekend of conflict between pro football and the World Series catches a pro picker suspended in mid-air between Los Angeles and Baltimore, hoping he doesn't wind up with Sandy Koufax throwing passes for the Rams and Frank Robinson hitting the line for the Colts.

Four of the weekend games are to be played Saturday night and seven on Sunday. Let's take another try (all games Sunday unless otherwise indicated):

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Cleveland 27, Pittsburgh 21—(Saturday night) Frank Ryan will have to go to the bombs against Steelers, who do a good job on defense against rush.

Washington 24, Atlanta 14—Sonny Jurgensen gets his turn to work out on Falcons' defense, which has been had for 13 touchdowns. Jurgy and Bobby Mitchell on target new.

Baltimore 22, Chicago 17—Colts haven't played since they beat 49ers Sept. 25 and have had two weeks to get ready for the Bears.

Green Bay 24, San Francisco 10—Packers appear capable of throttling everybody's offense.

Los Angeles 17, Detroit 14—Two of toughest defenses in league. A Bruce Gossett field goal could win it for Rams. It should be a low-scoring struggle with win going to team getting breaks.

St. Louis 28, New York 14—Charley Johnson should have a field day with New York defense which has given up 20 touchdowns.

Dallas 31, Philadelphia 14—Cowboys riding high on passing of Don Meredith and running of Dan Reeves.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Buffalo 28, Boston 21 (Saturday night—Bills have gained running punch with Bobby Burnett and Wray Carlton and Jack Kemp appears back on beam.

Kansas City 31, Denver 17 (Saturday night)—Len Dawson has thrown 12 TD passes and Broncs' defense leaky, despite upset 40-38 win over Houston last week.

New York 24, San Diego 21 (Saturday night)—A tight fit. Could go either way, especially with big home crowd rooting for Joe Namath and Co.

Oakland 28, Miami 7—Raiders long overdue to burst loose and the Dolphins come along just in time. Art Powell should have a big day against Miami secondary.

Houston has a bye.

Pro Football Leagues To Try Merger Again

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American and National Football Leagues will try again next Tuesday to persuade Congress to give legal sanction to their planned merger. But time may be running out.

If Congress fails to give legislative approval to the consolidation, NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle said Thursday he would reluctantly but strongly recommend to the presidents of the 24 teams involved to cancel their plans.

The House Antitrust Subcommittee met Thursday to consider a Senate-pssed bill exempting the merger from antitrust laws but accomplished little before the hearing was adjourned because of a House quorum call.

Chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., read a statement, however, which indicated he would not hurry the legislation through the House as the Senate did. The Senate passed the measure, without hearings, on a voice vote.

"The Antitrust Subcommittee intends to explore thoroughly the extent of antitrust immunity requested and the results that would flow from such immunity," said Celler, author of the laws the leagues want to circumvent.

Afterward, he rescheduled the hearings for next Tuesday.

With Congress attempting to adjourn by the middle of the month, swift action on the legislation is necessary. The judiciary Committee, which would receive the bill after subcommittee action, still has other important legislation before it and may not find time to handle the merger exemption before adjournment.

Rozelle and Milt Woodward, president of the AFL, were ready to testify Thursday but did not. Their statements, however, were released.

The NFL commissioner said threats of legal action by the Justice Department and private persons against the merger "make the plan extremely hazardous in the absence of congressional approval."

One private suit against the plan already has been filed.

Irish Rate 4-TD Pick Over Cadets

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Army, faced with the awesome task of containing Notre Dame's explosive atack this weekend isn't backing off by any means.

The Cadets, who've won three straight under new Coach Tom Cahill, travel to South Bend, Ind., Saturday to face the unbeaten Irish.

Notre Dame, keyed by the flashy sophomore battery of Terry Hanratty and Jim Seymour, rates as a four touchdown favorite. The third-ranked Irish have rolled past Purdue and Northwestern in their first two games.

Cahill and the Cadets recognize the power of this Notre Dame team but aren't awestruck by it.

"I've read about the odds," the Army coach said. "They don't scare us at all. We recognize whom we're meeting. But we think we can do the job ourselves."

In the only game matching Top Ten teams, eight-ranked Tennessee faces No. 9 Georgia Tech at Atlanta.

The game will be nationally televised (ABC-TV 4 p.m. EDT).

Dewey Warren, a flashy passer, holds the key for the Volunteers, who must stop the power running of Tech's Lenny Snow.

Top-ranked Michigan State battles arch-rival Michigan at East Lansing and the Spartans rate as two-touchdown favorites.

UCLA, No. 2, goes against Rice at Houston and Gary Beban and Co. are a three-touchdown choice.

In other major games, defending national champion Alabama, hoping to climb from its No. 4 berth, faces Clemson at Tuscaloosa and Arkansas, ranked fifth, risks its 24-game win string—the longest in college football—against Baylor and Terry Southall at Fayetteville.

Washington, which upset Ohio State last week, faces sixth-ranked Southern California, while No. 7 Nebraska meets Wisconsin, Florida, ranked 10th, faces Florida State.

In other major games around the country, Navy battles Syracuse and Princeton and Dartmouth, the Ivy League standouts, clash in the East; Purdue hosts Iowa and Ohio State visits Illinois in the Midwest; Mississippi faces Georgia and Duke takes on Maryland in the South; and Oklahoma tackles Texas and California hosts San Jose State in the Southwest and West.

Spanish Papers, Radio And TV Ignore Series

MADRID (AP)—As far as Spain is concerned the World Series might as well be played out of this world. There has been no reference in Spanish newspapers to the fall baseball classic in the United States. Radio and television stations also made no mention of the Series.

The major sports in Spain are soccer and bull fights. Most Spaniards don't know anything about baseball.

Youth, 14, Claimed By Football Injuries

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — A 14-year-old boy died Thursday night of a head injury suffered during football scrimmage Sunday.

The King County coroner's office said the boy, Everett L. Webb Jr., was hurt during tackling practice for the John F. Kennedy High School freshman football team.

Hints from Heloise

— by Heloise Cruse —

Dear Folks: No matter how hard we try to keep our oven clean when we bake in it, once in awhile we'll fill the baking utensil too full and that casserole or pie just will boil over.

Quite by accident I learned something real tricky last week.

Ah-ha . . . see where the multitude of drips are coming from, and slide one of these pans under that very spot on the shelf below.

I now have learned that when I bake something that might drip or overflow, I can take two of these wonderful pans and put them on the floor of my oven just in case there are drips. These can be used over and over again.

HELOISE

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

Dear Heloise: I cleaned the bathtub with the broom today (as you suggested).

That experience was GOOD and BAD. . . .

Good 'cause the tub got clean, but bad 'cause my string of pearls broke.

Good 'cause I was leaning over the tub at the time and didn't lose any, but bad 'cause I haven't any dental floss in the house so I can restring them.

But good 'cause they only cost 59 cents three years ago!

SUE

Dear Heloise: When you're moving, pack your dishes between paper plates to prevent breakage.

While you're getting settled in your new home, use the paper plates during mealtime.

-:-

Dear Heloise: A long time ago I read in your column of a bachelor's hint about washing dishes. He put liquid detergent directly on a damp sponge and wiped his dishes with it. Then he just rinsed them under hot water.

I have used this method ever since, but I put a double layer of nylon net over the sponge.

Some detergents last (with only one squirt) through the whole batch of dinner dishes, pots, pans and all.

Being an "outside-of-the-home-working-woman," I need all the short cuts I can find, and I think this is one of the best and most frequently used.

DOP PHILLIPS

Dear Heloise: A shower curtain hook put through holes in broom handles, garden tools, little children's push toys, etc., makes them easy to hang up out of the way when not in use.

A READER

Dear Heloise: I would love you to pass along this little hint for folks who have crowded clothes hanging space, and when they take a blouse or dress out, the collar insists on turning the wrong way.

Here is a solution:

When you iron the garments just put a hair clip on each side of the collar. They hold it down nicely.

JERRIE LANE

Dear Heloise: The droppers from my children's bottles of liquid vitamins fit perfectly on my little bottles of food coloring, almond extract, etc.

Replacing the usual food coloring cap with a cleaned dropper has saved me a lot of green, red, and yellow fingers!

ANNE GLASS

Dear Heloise: I am just wild about dying shoes. . . .

Since I am not a very good artist, I sometimes make a mess around the sole or the cap of the heel.

I found that if I buy an inexpensive felt-tipped ink marker and go around the edge of the sole, I can cover my mistakes and have a professional-looking dye job.

I found that either brown or black markers cover best and look the most natural.

Jury Awaits Murder Case Of Teacher

CLEARFIELD, Pa. (AP) — The fate of Jon E. Yount was expected to be placed today in the hands of a jury trying him for the rape and murder of Pamela Sue Rimer. The state has asked for first degree murder verdict.

Dist. Atty. John K. Reilly of Clearfield County told the panel Thursday in his summation that Yount, 28, panicked after the girl became agitated following what Reilly called Yount's improper remark to her.

Yount, a former mathematics teacher at DuBois High School, where Miss Rimer, 18, attended school, claims he was temporarily insane April 28 when the girl was slain. Her body was found in a wooded area near her Luthersburg R.D. 3 home.

"Panic is not legal insanity," Reilly said. "Panic is panic."

Reilly said that Yount's invitation to Miss Rimer to enter his car "could not have been anything but a proposal to commit an immoral act."

He said that Yount's attack was motivated by his worry about his reputation as a teacher.

Summing up for the defense, Attorney Homer King said, "If he (Yount) did do it, he was not responsible because of what we call legal insanity.

4 Of 5 In Stamp Case Are Granted Separate Trials

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Four men of five men charged with interstate transportation of 65 million stolen trading stamps have been granted a separate trial.

Federal Judge Gerald J. Weber ordered Thursday that the proceedings against Ralph C. Hobbs, 49, Beaver Falls; George Laris, 51, Ambridge; Victor Battista, 36, East Orange, N.J. and Gaetano Miceli, 37, Buffalo, N.Y., be declared a mistrial.

Weber said he ordered the mistrial to allow proceedings against the four to be continued under the present indictments against them until Nov. 21, when the next session of jury trials opens.

The order came after repeated defense motions to separate each case, claiming the testimony in connection with the activities of one of the defendants might prejudice the case for all of the accused.

Meanwhile, the trial of the fifth defendant, Joseph B. Morris, 50, of San Francisco, was scheduled to continue today. His attorney made no request for a severance.

Ohio Traffic Mishaps Claim 2 More Lives

By The Associated Press

Thursday's traffic safety record in Ohio was, in a way, just as unusual as Wednesday's.

Traffic deaths around the state Wednesday killed 19 persons. Thursday's death toll was one, the victim being a 23-year-old Kettering youth, Jack Blome. Police said they were chasing his car when it hit a tree in Lebanon in the early morning hours.

Early today, about 24 hours after Blome's death, a two-car collision near Eaton killed John J. Frick, 49, of Bellefontaine.

Rifle Wounds District Youth, 12 Others Hurt In Accidents

A Fairview (Pa.) area youth, wounded by a rifle bullet when he tripped during target practice near home Thursday, was treated at City Hospital where 12 other area residents were treated yesterday after separate mishaps.

Terry Dawson, 19, of Five Points north of Fairview suffered a wound of the left arm when his .22-caliber rifle discharged when he tripped. He put out his left hand for support and the weapon fired, the bullet striking his arm. He is the son of Theodore Dawson.

Charles Crooms of Georgetown R.D. 1, an employe of the Montgomery Ward Co., received a cut eyelid and bruises of the cheek when struck by a tire which blew off a repair machine while he was at work.

Brent Heffner, son of Frank Heffner of Chester R.D. 1, suffered a puncture wound of the chest when he fell down steps at home and struck a board with a nail in it.

Charles Emler of 1956 Dresden Ave. was treated last night for a finger injury received while playing football.

Ralph Seevers, son of Harold Seevers of 1631 Globe St., received an injury to the shoulder while playing football at East Junior High School.

Scott Montooth, son of Kenneth Montooth of R.D. 2, was treated for scalds of the chest after hot lemonade spilled.

John C. Hobbs, son of Patrick Hobbs of Sharon Dr., was bitten by a dog on the right leg while delivering papers.

Roland Riggle Jr., of 36 1st St., Newell, was bitten by a dog on the arm.

Debbie Martin, daughter of Richard Martin of 744 Avondale St., received a cut lip in a fall in her yard.

Mrs. Kathryn Lucas of 91 Grant St., Newell, tripped on a step, injuring her left ankle.

Richard Beatty, small son of Richard Beatty of East Liverpool, received a head injury in a fall down steps.

Paul Walter of Shippingport, an employe of the Georgetown Sand & Gravel Co., suffered a puncture wound of the leg on a chisel while at work.

New Directors To Be Named As Historical Group Meets

Directors will be elected when the Mill Creek Valley Historical Association meets next Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Independence School on Rt. 151.

A display of lamps from the private collection of Odger Miner will be part of the program. There will be refreshments and a social hour.

The association now has more than 600 members, with the only prerequisite for membership "an interest in local history."

Gladys L. Hoover, president, emphasizes that the findings of local history, particularly the south side of Beaver County, are being studied and recorded, not only for their value locally, but also in the wider context of their relation to county, state and national history.

Clifford J. Smith, research coordinator, is following guidelines, set forth by the American Association for State and Local History.

Miner's collection of lamps illustrates this concept of local history related to a wider framework. Many of his lamps have been collected locally, with one said to be from the old Academy in New Sheffield. However, he also has obtained others from Boston to Florida, and throughout Ohio, Pennsylvania and the West Virginia Panhandle.

Membership in the association may be obtained by mailing the $1 annual membership fee to Frank Kelsey, membership chairman, Box 345, Aliquippa R.D. 1, or to Grace C. Wilson, secretary, Box 329, Aliquippa R.D. 1.

Shower Is Held At Summitville

SUMMITVILLE — Mrs. Paul Dowdell was hostess at a miscellaneous bridal shower for Miss Judy Johnson of Cleveland. Assisting was Mrs. Howard Faulk of East Liverpool, the bride-to-be's maternal grandmother.

The gift table placed before the brick mantle was decorated with green crepe paper, featuring a pink, green and white umbrella placed at the corner of the table. Pink and green crepe paper festooned the area from the mantle to the table.

A white linen cloth covered the buffet table, centered with red roses, a gift to the honor guest from Mrs. F. H. Johnson, her other grandmother.

Miss Johnson is the daughter of Fred Johnson of Summitville and Mrs. Jean Negrum of San Jose, Calif.

Guests attended from Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Minerva, East Liverpool and Kensington.

Rummage Sale Slated By Kiwanis Members

Plans are being completed for the annual Kiwanis Club rummage sale to be held next week at a W. 6th St. storeroom which formerly housed the Yarn Shop.

Harold Allison, general chairman, said club members will collect clothing and other items for the sale and deliver them to the storeroom Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Allison and Mrs. Alex Kidd head a women's group directing the sale, from which proceeds will be used for the club's community service projects.

Anyone with items to donate may notify Allison at the Crook Furniture Co. or club members.

Purple Heart Awarded AP Photographer

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Associated Press photographer Al Chang was awarded the Purple Heart today during a U.S. paratrooper operation in the jungled D zone northwest of Saigon.

Chang, who retired from the U.S. Army last year as a master sergeant after 20 years of service, got the medal for being wounded while accompanying a company of the 173rd Airborne Brigade last Dec. 18. Chang is from Kaneoh, Oahu, Hawaii.

The medal was presented by the commander of the 2nd Battalion, 503rd Regiment, 173rd Airborne Brigade, Lt. Col. Robert H. Sigholtz of Philadelphia, Pa.

A Viet Cong bullet struck Chang over the left eye and lodged in his head during a military operation in Phuoc Tuy Province.

He continued to take pictures after being wounded and the bullet was removed later.

Report Says Religion Should Be Taught In Public Schools

NEW YORK (AP) — An interfaith team of scholars today concluded that religion can and should be taught in the public schools — and urged provisions for better textbooks and teacher preparation to do it.

Schools need to clarify their "responsibility for dealing with the total cultural heritage, of which religious values are an integral part," the report, the product of an intensive, two-year study, said.

"Knowledge about religion" it declared, "may be considered an important component of an adequate education for citizenship."

A special committee, set up through the National Conference of Christians and Jews, made the study in the schools of Pittsburgh, Pa. Its findings were regarded as having wide implications elsewhere.

Examining the background and present situation in the schools, along with court rulings, educational objectives, teacher attitudes and other aspects, the report said: "Within the present constitutional provisions, courses in Biblical history, the history of religion, comparative religions and the relation of religion to the advancement of civilization and to important concerns in contemporary life may be offered in the public schools."

The conclusions were summarized by the committee chairman, Dr. Lawrence C. Little, professor of education and head of the religious education program at the University of Pittsburgh.

Emphasizing that the function of the schools is "not to lead in worship," but to offer factual, objective instruction about religion and its impact on culture, history and institutions, the report criticized the lack of adequate materials for doing the job.

Although the study concentrated only on the social studies curriculum, the report noted there also were "rich possibilities for treating religion in such fields as literature, art, music" and other fields.

Union To Meet In Dispute With Education Board

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Leaders of Public Employes Union Local 1143 have called membership meeting for Saturday to discuss the status of a contract dispute with the Youngstown Board of Education.

Members of the local, which represents custodians, bus driver, school firemen, cafeteria workers and mechanics, voted strike authority for negotiations last Sunday if no progress is made in reaching agreement on an initial contract.

Union and board representatives recessed talks Thursday night with no progress reported and no date was set for resumption of negotiations.

The board recognized the union, which represents about 250 employes, and seven other associations and unions as bargaining agents earlier this week. Responding to the threat of a strike, the board also asked the city law director to be prepared to obtain a court restraining order.

Couple To Mark 76th Wedding Anniversary

RANKIN, Ill. (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. Sid Davis observe their 76th wedding anniversary today.

Their two daughters and two sons are at their parents' small farm home for the family party. Some of the Davis' 12 grandchildren, 29 great-grandchildren and five great-great-grandchildren also are present.

Davis at one time operated a farm of 1,300 acres near Oxford, Ill., and later he had another farm in the Hoopeston, Ill., area. He retired in 1938 and moved to this eastern Illinois community of about 800 persons. Davis was 97 years old last Wednesday. His wife is 94.

Tyler County Bank Robbed; 3 Men Sought

MIDDLEBOURNE, W.Va. (AP) —State Police said today they "have nothing . . . no definite leads, nothing" in the hunt for three men who got away with $48,436 from the Tyler County Bank Thursday.

State Police, sheriff's deputies and FBI agents worked through most of the night attempting to track the bandits, reported to have driven away from the bank in a 1960 white Oldsmobile.

But other than that, State Police Cpl. J.N. Morrison said today roadblocks through the northern West Virginia area plus other investigation have failed to turn up what he called "a positive lead."

Two of the three men held snub - nosed pistols on a bank cashier shortly before noon Thursday and ordered him to get "all the money." No shots were fired.

The pair stuffed the cash in a tan canvass satchel, walked out the front door and left in the car driven by a third man.

State Police set up road blocks shortly after the holdup was reported and took them down at midnight. The roadblocks were put back up at daybreak this morning, Morrison said.

Officials theorized the trio may have fled into eastern Ohio or into rural backwoods area of central West Virginia.

Woman Tells Police Of Attempted Attack

CINCINNATI (AP) — A 48-year-old woman reported to police Thursday night a man attempted to attack her in the elevator of her apartment building in the Walnut Hills area. She lives in a building next door to one in which a 65-year-old woman was raped a year ago.

The woman said a Negro man lunged at her and attempted to place a piece of stocking or a rope around her neck. Her screams frightened him off, she said.

Three women have been raped and strangled in the city since last December. None of the cases has been solved.

Young Lone Opponent

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, was the lone opponent as the Senate Armed Services Committee sent to the Senate floor Thursday a bill under which servicemen in Viet Nam volunteering for extended tours could get 30 days leave and transportation home.

New Indictments Called By U.S. In Rights Slayings

MERIDIAN, Miss. (AP) — The Justice Department has called for new indictments against 17 white men accused in the slayings of three civil rights workers at Philadelphia, Miss., in 1964.

U.S. Dist. Judge Harold Cox ruled Thursday the indictments are invalid because the grand jury which charged them was not drawn from fair representative of both sexes and races.

The decision was based on a July 20 ruling by the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals at New Orleans that no valid jury can be drawn from a list that is in any way unrepresentative.

The dismissal was requested last week by the Justice Department which said it would seek new indictments from another grand jury.

The 17 white men were indicted Jan. 15 last year in the slayings of Andrew Goodman and Michael Schwerner, two white men from New York, and James Chaney, a Meridian Negro.

The 17 men had been charged with conspiring to violate the civil rights of the slain workers.

Figures Issued For County Jail

LISBON — The Columbiana County jail booked 76 prisoners in September in addition to the 42 confined as of Sept. 1, Sheriff Russell J. Van Fossan reports.

He said 76 prisoners were released last month, one was taken to a state institution and three mental patients were taken to state hospitals.

The jail served 3,649 meals during September at a total cost of $1,301, making the average daily food cost $1.07 per prisoner, the sheriff said.

There were 146 visitors at the jail in September.

The sheriff's office in the Courthouse accepted 14 sets of fox feet and ears for the $3 bounty. The sheriff said 429 papers were served and 4,680 radio messages and 1,116 telephone calls were handled at the jail. Fees totaling $861 were collected.

Reminder Given On Proper Care In Food Serving

Jack Bonner, acting city health commissioner, today issued a reminder on a series of tips on proper practices in food handling for restaurant employes.

"Many diseases can be transferred through careless handling of food or utensils," he said. "An individual's health may depend upon the person who serves him in a restaurant, as well as the persons who cook and wash the dishes."

He reminded food - handlers that:

Neither clean nor soiled glasses ever should be touched on the rim.

Doughnuts, pastries, ice, butter and other perishable commodities should not be touched by the hands.

Dishes should show no food soil from previous use.

Displayed food should be kept in cases or under shields and maintained at the proper temperature — hot or cold.

Foods such as potato salad, cottage cheese, egg dishes, ground or chopped meats, custard or cream - filled pastries always should be kept at a temperature below 50 degrees, as they provide a good medium for growth of bacteria when at room temperature.

Mrs. Sheppard Denies Rumors Of Breakup

DUESSELDORF, Germany (AP) — Mrs. Samuel H. Sheppard has again denied rumors of a possible breakup with her husband, who goes on retrial this month in the 1954 slaying of his first wife at Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs. Sheppard is back in her native Germany, staying with friends here, she says, "to take care of some personal and financial matters which could not be settled by correspondence." It may be several weeks before she returns to Cleveland, she said yesterday.

Painesville Man, 36, Charged With Murder

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — A 36-year-old Painesville man was charged with second - degree murder Thursday in the fatal shooting of his 31-year-old wife.

Municipal Court Judge Oliver R. Marshall declined to hear a plea from John C. King Thursday, continuing the case until King consults with a lawyer. The Kings had been in the process of getting a divorce and had lived apart since last June.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Navy Lt. (j.g.) Dieter Dengler, the pilot who escaped from a Communist prison camp in Laos last July, was on convalescent leave today after completing extensive medical treatment.

A Navy spokesman in San Diego said "Dengler will spend most of his time just relaxing from the hectic pace he has been exposed to since his return to the San Diego area."

The leave ends Oct. 31. He is expected to return to full active duty then, probably in the Alameda, Calif., area, the spokesman said.

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Mrs. Hubert H. Humphrey says she's happy where she is as wife of the vice president. Her ambitions don't include becoming America's First Lady.

"I don't want her (Mrs. Lyndon Johnson's) position," Mrs. Humphrey told a gathering in Atlanta, Ga., Thursday. "I'm happy where I am."

Mrs. Humphrey talked to newsmen and dignitaries at the Southeastern fair where she crowned the 1966 homemaker queen.

DUESSELDORF, Germany (AP) — The wife of Dr. Sam Sheppard has brushed off rumors that the couple's marriage is in trouble.

"That's all pure invention," said German-born Ariane Sheppard in Duesseldorf, Germany Thursday. "We have just bought a new house, which we certainly would not have done if we were thinking about anything like a divorce."

Mrs. Sheppard, the former Ariane Tebbenjohanns, is in Germany "to take care of some personal and financial matters."

The couple was married after they struck up a friendship by correspondence while Sheppard was in prison, convicted of murdering his first wife. He was freed after winning an appeal. A new trial is scheduled to begin this month.

Tyler County Bank Robbed; 3 Men Sought

MIDDLEBOURNE, W.Va. (AP) —State Police said today they "have nothing . . . no definite leads, nothing" in the hunt for three men who got away with $48,436 from the Tyler County Bank Thursday.

State Police, sheriff's deputies and FBI agents worked through most of the night attempting to track the bandits, reported to have driven away from the bank in a 1960 white Oldsmobile.

But other than that, State Police Cpl. J.N. Morrison said today roadblocks through the northern West Virginia area plus other investigation have failed to turn up what he called "a positive lead."

Two of the three men held snub - nosed pistols on a bank cashier shortly before noon Thursday and ordered him to get "all the money." No shots were fired.

The pair stuffed the cash in a tan canvass satchel, walked out the front door and left in the car driven by a third man.

State Police set up road blocks shortly after the holdup was reported and took them down at midnight. The roadblocks were put back up at daybreak this morning, Morrison said.

Officials theorized the trio may have fled into eastern Ohio or into rural backwoods area of central West Virginia.

Woman Tells Police Of Attempted Attack

CINCINNATI (AP) — A 48-year-old woman reported to police Thursday night a man attempted to attack her in the elevator of her apartment building in the Walnut Hills area. She lives in a building next door to one in which a 65-year-old woman was raped a year ago.

The woman said a Negro man lunged at her and attempted to place a piece of stocking or a rope around her neck. Her screams frightened him off, she said.

Three women have been raped and strangled in the city since last December. None of the cases has been solved.

Young Lone Opponent

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, was the lone opponent as the Senate Armed Services Committee sent to the Senate floor Thursday a bill under which servicemen in Viet Nam volunteering for extended tours could get 30 days leave and transportation home.

New Indictments Called By U.S. In Rights Slayings

MERIDIAN, Miss. (AP) — The Justice Department has called for new indictments against 17 white men accused in the slayings of three civil rights workers at Philadelphia, Miss., in 1964.

U.S. Dist. Judge Harold Cox ruled Thursday the indictments are invalid because the grand jury which charged them was not drawn from fair cross-sections representative of both sexes and races.

The decision was based on a July 20 ruling by the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals at New Orleans that no valid jury can be drawn from a list that is in any way unrepresentative.

The dismissal was requested last week by the Justice Department which said it would seek new indictments from another grand jury.

The 17 white men were indicated Jan. 15 last year in the slayings of Andrew Goodman and Michael Schwerner, two white men from New York, and James Chaney, a Meridian Negro.

The 17 men had been charged with conspiring to violate the civil rights of the slain workers.

Figures Issued For County Jail

LISBON — The Columbiana County jail booked 76 prisoners in September in addition to the 42 confined as of Sept. 1, Sheriff Russell J. Van Fossan reports.

He said 76 prisoners were released last month, one was taken to a state institution and three mental patients were taken to state hospitals.

The jail served 3,649 meals during September at a total cost of $1,301, making the average daily food cost $1.07 per prisoner, the sheriff said.

There were 146 visitors at the jail in September.

The sheriff's office in the Courthouse accepted 14 sets of fox feet and ears for the $3 bounty. The sheriff said 429 papers were served and 4,680 radio messages and 1,116 telephone calls were handled at the jail. Fees totaling $861 were collected.

COLUMUS, Ohio (AP) — Funeral services are scheduled Saturday for Arthur W. Moon, supervisor of the Division of Safety and Hygiene, Industrial Commission of Ohio, who died at his home here Tuesday. He was 57 and a Middletown native.

Reminder Given On Proper Care In Food Serving

Jack Bonner, acting city health commissioner, today issued a reminder on a series of tips on proper practices in food handling for restaurant employes.

"Many diseases can be transferred through careless handling of food or utensils," he said. "An individual's health may depend upon the person who serves him in a restaurant, as well as the persons who cook and wash the dishes."

He reminded food - handlers that:

Neither clean nor soiled glasses ever should be touched on the rim.

Doughnuts, pastries, ice, butter and other perishable commodities should not be touched by the hands.

Dishes should show no food soil from previous use.

Displayed food should be kept in cases or under shields and maintained at the proper temperature — hot or cold.

Foods such as potato salad, cottage cheese, egg dishes, ground or chopped meats, custard or cream - filled pastries always should be kept at a temperature below 50 degrees, as they provide a good medium for growth of bacteria when at room temperature.

Mrs. Sheppard Denies Rumors Of Breakup

DUESSELDORF, Germany (AP) — Mrs. Samuel H. Sheppard has again denied rumors of a possible breakup with her husband, who goes on retrial this month in the 1954 slaying of his first wife at Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs. Sheppard is back in her native Germany, staying with friends here, she says, "to take care of some personal and financial matters which could not be settled by correspondence." It may be several weeks before she returns to Cleveland, she said yesterday.

Painesville Man, 36, Charged With Murder

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—A 36-year-old Painesville man was charged with second - degree murder Thursday in the fatal shooting of his 31-year-old wife.

Municipal Court Judge Oliver R. Marshall declined to hear a plea from John C. King Thursday, continuing the case until King consults with a lawyer. The Kings had been in the process of getting a divorce and had lived apart since last June.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Navy Lt. (j.g.) Dieter Dengler, the pilot who escaped from a Communist prison camp in Laos last July, was on convalescent leave today after completing extensive medical treatment.

A Navy spokesman in San Diego said "Dengler will spend most of his time just relaxing from the hectic pace he has been exposed to since his return to the San Diego area."

The leave ends Oct. 31. He is expected to return to full active duty then, probably in the Alameda, Calif., area, the spokesman said.

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Mrs. Hubert H. Humphrey says she's happy where she is as wife of the vice president. Her ambitions don't include becoming America's First Lady.

"I don't want her (Mrs. Lyndon Johnson's) position," Mrs. Humphrey told a gathering in Atlanta, Ga., Thursday. "I'm happy where I am."

Mrs. Humphrey talked to newsmen and dignitaries at the Southeastern fair where she crowned the 1966 homemaker queen.

DUESSELDORF, Germany (AP) — The wife of Dr. Sam Sheppard has brushed off rumors that the couple's marriage is in trouble.

"That's all pure invention," said German-born Ariane Sheppard in Duesseldorf, Germany Thursday. "We have just bought a new house, which we certainly would not have done if we were thinking about anything like a divorce."

Mrs. Sheppard, the former Ariane Tebbenjohanns, is in Germany "to take care of some personal and financial matters."

The couple was married after they struck up a friendship by correspondence while Sheppard was in prison, convicted of murdering his first wife. He was freed after winning an appeal. A new trial is scheduled to begin this month.

Save for the imperial woodpecker of Mexico, the ivory-bill was or is the largest woodpecker in the world. It grew about the size of a crow, and had a wingspan reaching 33 inches.

Junior Editors Quiz on COWS

QUESTION: When does a cow begin to give milk? How much does she give?

ANSWER: Dairy cows begin to give milk after they have had their first calf, which is usually when they are between 2 and 3 years old (1). As a rule there is only one calf, although there may be twins. A cow starting to give milk is called a "fresh" cow and can be milked steadily for about 10 months. For more milk, breeding must be arranged so she gives birth to another calf, for without this, a cow can not produce milk. As a rule, dairy cows can go on producing good quantities of milk for five or six years, but exceptionally good ones may continue for as long as 20 years.

Farmers think of milk production in pounds, because creameries pay for the milk by the pound. It is easier for the rest of us if we measure a cow's production in gallons; a gallon representing 8.6 pounds. Figured this way, we may say that two gallons a day might be an average cow's production (2). The individual cow will vary from this, especially since some breeds, such as Holsteins, give more milk than others.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: See if you can tell the breed of the next cow you see. If you can't look up the cattle in an encyclopedia.

★ ★ ★

Bev Beecham of Grant, Mich., wins today's combined prize of Compton's Illustrated Science Dictionary plus $10 cash for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Friday, Oct. 7, the 280th day of 1966. There are 85 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1918, the U.S. 307th Regiment rescued the famed "Lost Battalion," which had been under seige by the Germans in a French valley for almost a week. Of the 651 men in the battalion, all but 194 were killed or wounded.

On this date:

In 1777, the Battle of Bemis Heights was fought, resulting in the surrender of British Gen. John Burgoyne's army at Saratoga, N.Y., 10 days later.

In 1944, the Dumbarton Oaks security conferences ended.

In 1945, Gen. George Patton surrendered his Third Army command to Lt. Gen. Lucian Truscott.

Ten years ago — At least 11 persons were killed in election day violence in Honduras. Dissident factions were charging the regime of the Central American country's chief of state, Julia Lozano, had won a majority in the Honduran Constituent Assembly through fraud.

Five years ago — A British Derby Aviation DCE passenger plane crashed in the Pyrenees near Toulouse, France, killing all 37 persons aboard.

One year ago — Radio Jakarta, under the control of the Indonesian army, continued to pour out anti-communist broadcasts despite President Sukarno's appeals for a let-live approach.

Figured this way, we may say that two gallons a day might be an average cow's production (2). The individual cow will vary from this, especially since some breeds, such as Holsteins, give more milk than others.

FOR YOU TO DO: See if you can tell the breed of the next cow you see. If you can't look up the cattle in an encyclopedia.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Friday, Oct. 7, the 280th day of 1966. There are 85 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1918, the U.S. 307th Regiment rescued the famed "Lost Battalion," which had been under seige by the Germans in a French valley for almost a week. Of the 651 men in the battalion, all but 194 were killed or wounded.

On this date:

In 1777, the Battle of Bemis Heights was fought, resulting in the surrender of British Gen. John Burgoyne's army at Saratoga, N.Y., 10 days later.

In 1944, the Dumbarton Oaks security conferences ended.

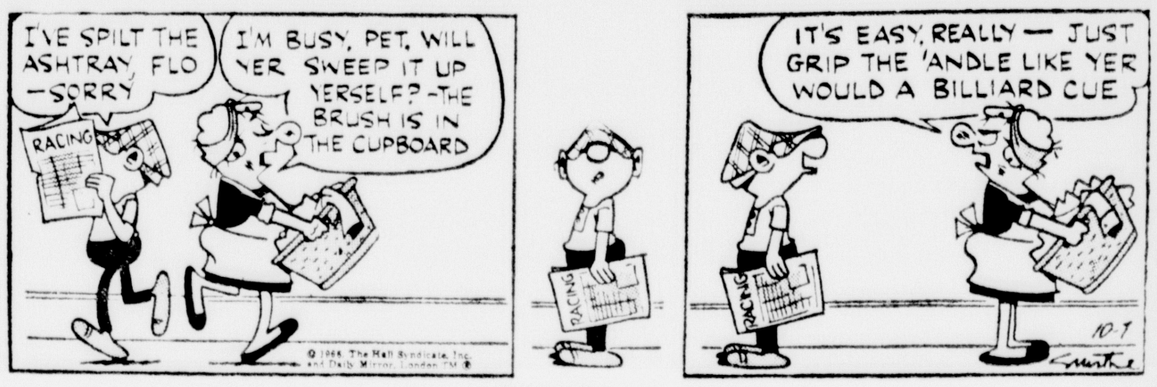

In 1945, Gen. George Patton surrendered his Third Army command to Lt. Gen. Lucian Truscott.

Ten years ago — At least 11 persons were killed in election day violence in Honduras. Dissident factions were charging the regime of the Central American country's chief of state, Julia Lozano, had won a majority in the Honduran Constituent Assembly through fraud.

Five years ago — A British Derby Aviation DCE passenger plane crashed in the Pyrenees near Toulouse, France, killing all 37 persons aboard.

One year ago — Radio Jakarta, under the control of the Indonesian army, continued to pour out anit-communist broadcasts despite President Sukarno's appeals for a let-live approach.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I have been married for nine years to an alcoholic.

During his bouts with J. Barleycorn he ignored the children and shamed the face off me in front of friends and family.

Now that he has taken the cure he thinks I should kiss his feet when he walks through the door and forget all the agony and pain he has caused me.

Since he has stopped drinking we have extra money to do some of the things I've always wanted to do but could never afford but he is never here. He is out in the neighborhood "doing good deeds" for everybody and anybody.

They all tell him what a great guy he is and are pinning medals on him because he straightened around. Nobody praises me for having put up with him.

He was in the hospital four times with DTs. Unless you have seen someone under these conditions you can't imagine what it's like.

I'd like your views on how to handle the situation.—NOTHING WIFE.

Dear N.W.: You were miserable when your husband was on the booze and you are miserable now that he is off it. I think perhaps you are just miserable.

I can't straighten you out in a single letter. Get in touch with Al - Anon. (This is a branch of AA.) Read their literature and learn how to live with your husband. Some women find a dried-out drunk more of a problem than a wet one.

Wonderful Teens

Dear Ann: Recently I had to travel from Los Angeles to Chicago by train. I had my 7-year-old daughter with me.

After the first few hours the novelty of the train ride wore off and Dena began to get restless. I couldn't think of a thing to hold her interest. She nagged me until I was nearly out of my mind.

Two teen - age girls seated across the aisle noticed my plight. They asked if they could take Dena to the lounge car. I agreed, happily. They brought her back in about an hour, combed and pinned up her hair and put a ribbon in it. After that they read to her and told her stories.

Those teen - agers saved my life. The trip was a restful, pleasant experience instead of the ordeal it had started out to be.

Please print this letter as proof that not all teen-agers are running in gangs, drinking, driving like lunatics and getting into trouble. Most of them are really wonderful. — H. N.

Dear H. N.: Thanks for the testimonial. It's refreshing to get a letter about well-motivated teen-agers for a change. I know from lecturing in hundreds of high schools just how wonderful they can be.

Drummer Boys

Dear Ann: I don't know if my problem is my 13-year-old son or my 39-year-old husband. Can you help?

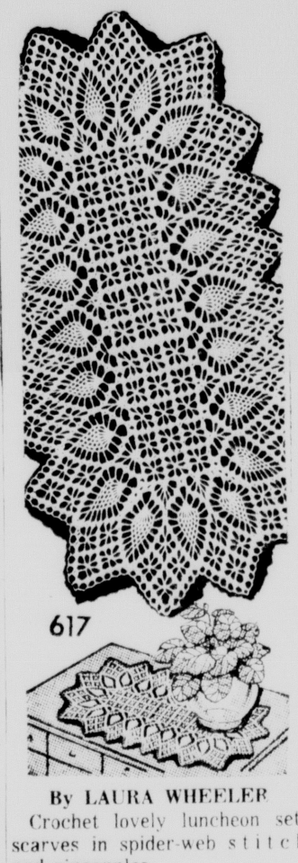

We bought Johnny a set of drums for his birthday because he had been begging us for two years. He plays in the band at school and his teacher says he is very good.

My husband has been taking over Johnny's drums almost every night after supper and there's always an argument. I think my husband is being childish and unfair. Do you? —HEADACHE.

Dear Headache: You should be in there promoting "togetherness" instead of backing up your son against his dad. Buy a set of second-hand drums for the old man as a surprise and let them play together. Johnny can practice before Gene Krupa gets home from work.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self - addressed envelope.

Franklin Repairs Aired At School Board Session

SALINEVILLE — A discussion of the need for state-ordered improvements to the Franklin School at Summitville highlighted a meeting of the Southern Local School District Board of Education Wednesday night.

Work on a fire escape, furnace and other conditions was urged by state inspectors. The district recently was directed to make the cnanges or warned the school would have to be closed Nov. 23.

School board members last night said there are no funds available at present for such repairs and expressed hope that the proposed new 4.5-mill school levy on the Nov. 8 ballot will be approved in order to provide the nedeed funds.

The board assured a delegation from the Franklin area something in the manner of repairs will be made if the levy is approved. Members indicated they could not determine when or how the repairs could be made otherwise.

In other action, the increase in the price of milk at school cafeterias was increased from two to three cents a half pint.

Mrs. Helen Saling was given a permanent substitute teaching contract. She is serving in the place of Mrs. Lucy Martin, who is on sick leave from Highland-town School.

The county policy on married students and Bible instruction was adopted. Married students are permitted to attend school but not to take part in extra-curricular activities. The Bible will be part of a general study of literature, and not a religious teaching program.

Supt. Thomas Leek said positions of substitute cafeteria workers and assistant custodian at Franklin School are available, and anyone interested may apply with him. Anyone on previous substitute lists should reapply, he said.

The board approved Jerry Winstead as assistant basketball coach and Paul Barbuto as freshman coach.

Supt. Leek was granted permission to attend a meeting of the Ohio School Superintendents Association Oct. 18-19 at Columbus.

Plans for the campaign for the proposed levy were disussed.

The board agreed to apply for two new buses — for which the state will pay 67 per cent — instead of having two older buses repaired.

The next meeting will be Nov. 9 instead of Nov. 2 because regular bills will not be processed in time from the first of the month for the board to consider, Leek said.

4-Day Strike Against Dravo Concern Ends

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Members of Local 61, Marine and Shipbuilders Workers, have ended a four-day strike at the Dravo Corp.'s two Neville Island plants.

About 1,400 union members returned to work Thursday after ratifying a 23-month contract offering a nine per cent wage increase. A union spokesman said the contract also included improved fringe benefits and working conditions.

The workers walked off at midnight Friday when the previous contract expired.

Ohio's First 'Non-Graded' High School Set For 1967

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's first "non-graded" high school should be in operation by September, 1967, according to Fred Chase, Athens city school superintendent.

Chase told the State Conference on Educational Leadership here Thursday that the new Athens school will do away with traditional grade levels and their specific curricula in favor of an "appropriate placement" system.

Students in the new school will be assigned within the full range of high school courses and allowed to proceed at their own rate, he said.

Chase said the new system will be implemented in a consolidated high school being built on the edge of Athens. The 1,200-student school will replace three existing high schools, he said.

Chase said a $104,000 federally financed feasibility study has been completed and the Athens school board is expected to approve the project next week.

No decision has been made on the schoolwork grading system to be used under the new plan. One proposal would substitute "satisfactory" and "unsatisfactory" ratings for traditional letter grades.

Chase said the Athens school would be similar to "non-graded schools recommended by California education expert Dr. John Goodlad.

Goodlad also spoke at Thursday's session of the conference.

He cautioned the 500 school officials attending the conference against being overly concerned with community reaction.

"We've gone crawling to the community for so long in fear," he said, "that they don't trust us anymore. We must set forth our data, plans and suggestions and say, 'We are professionals and we are going to make these decisions.'"

Vote Opposite

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Frank J. Lausche was one of just eight Democrats — the others all southerners — voting against the $6.4 billion federal aid bill for grade and high schools Thursday. The vote of Lausche's fellow Ohioan, Sen. Stephen M. Young, helped carry the bill as it passed 54-16.

15 Plumbing Firms Cited In Price-Fixing

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Fifteen plumbing manufacturers, including one Pennsylvania firm, face federal court action on charges of fixing prices in violation of the Sherman Antitrust Act.

A federal grand jury handed down two indictments Thursday in U.S. District Court against eight company executives and a trade association, as well as the 15 firms.

The indictment said the companies illegally raised and fixed the prices of such fixtures as sinks, bathtubs and toilets during a period beginning in September, 1962, and continuing into 1966.

One of the firms named was Universal—Rundle Corp. of New Castle. Its president, John Sant, issued a statement saying there would be no comment pending a thorough study of the charges.

A parallel civil antitrust suit was filed by the Justice Department asking that the Plumbing Fixture Manufacturers Association of Washington be dissolved and that the firms be permanently enjoined from "fixing prices and restraining trade."

Post Office Funds For Mansfield Ok'd

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional action was completed Thursday authorizing construction of a $4,990,000 post office-federal office building at Mansfield, Ohio, among $376.7 million worth of federal buildings around the nation.

The House Public Works Committee approved plans, which with previous Senate Public Works Committee approval, was all the congressional action required—but funds to pay for the work are subject to separate clearance by Congress.

The House committee also approved other projects still subject to Senate committee confirmation, including a new $7,292,000 post office and $4,090,000 renovation of the Cleveland, Ohio, post office, customhouse and courthouse.

Waves driven by hurricane winds have enormous erosive power. In five or six hours, a severe storm can completely wash away miles of sand dunes 10 to 20 feet high and 100 feet wide at the base.

Chairmen Set By Farm Club

Committee chairmen were named for 1967 by Mrs. Jennie Mills, president, during the meeting of the Fairview Farm Women's Club Wednesday afternoon at the Pughtown Grange Hall. They are:

Mrs. Eva Huff, better living; Mrs. Jennie Mills, civic responsibility; Mrs. Chester Minesinger, cultural advancement; Mrs. Mary Jane Gardner, health; Mrs. Mary Herron, material resources; Mrs. Edith Johnston, human resources; Mrs. Bertha Shaffer, courtesy, and Mrs. Helen Huff, social.

Devotions were conducted by Mrs. Ellen Rawson, who used excerpts from the Bible on "Christian Living."

Readings were given by Mrs. Marie Pugh, Mrs. Mary Jane Gardener and Mrs. Edith Stewart. Sentence prayers were given by members.

Lesson leaders, topics and hostesses were chosen for the coming year.

Members displayed aprons they are making in conjunction with the annual Christmas Ideas Tea Nov. 10-11 at Oak Glen High School.

An auction sale netted $1.25.

Lunch was served to 14 by Mrs. Rawson and Mrs. Elizabeth Hoffman, hostesses. The next meeting will be Nov. 2 at the grange hall.

In 1877, Giovanni Virginio Schiaparelli, of the Milan Observatory, reported seeing an astonishing system of lines criss-crossing Mars. He identified them as grooves, or canali, which was misleadingly translated as "canals."

Reams' Team Carries Bid To Columbus

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Democratic candidate for governor and fellow members of the Reams Team of state office seekers swung through Columbus Thursday.

State Sen. Frazier Reams Jr., seeking to unseat Gov. James A. Rhodes, led his caravan through the Capital City practically on the eve of major Democratic and Republican doings here.

U.S. Sen. Robert F. Kennedy of New York addresses a $50-a-plate Democratic fund-raising dinner Saturday night at the Lausche Building on the State Fairgrounds—a stone's throw from the Fairgrounds Coliseum where the GOP holds its state convention Saturday.

A party of about 25, including newsmen and "some congressmen," are expected with Kennedy when the senator arrives, according to Bert Schildhouse of Democratic State Headquarters.

Schildhouse said he was told Kennedy expects to have "a couple of surprises" on his Columbus visit.

Arrangements call for a brief talk by the former U.S. attorney general at the airport prior to a restaurant reception in honor of Robert N. Shamansky, the Democrat running against Rep. Samuel L. Devine for 12th District congressman.

Reams and his fellow candidates shook hands, distributed literature and criticized the Rhodes Administration during Thursday's politicking.

After an evening reception, Reams flew to Cleveland where he was scheduled to address the Ohio Building Trades Council today.

The porpoise has a brain bigger and in some ways apparently more complex than man's.

SEC Sets Deadline On Ohio Power's Bid

Ohio Power of Canton, Ohio, a subsidiary of American Electric Power Co., Inc., New York, plans to sell the notes to banks.
